Million-Dollar Fire Guts Big Vancouver Industrial Area

Seething flames ate heart out of Vancouver's False Creek industrial area and wreaked havoc to tune of over a million dollars Tuesday night. Fires destroyed lumber yards, steel fabricating plants, paper plants and smaller industries in heavily built-up area on flats, largely reclaimed from marsh lands. Every available unit of city's fire fighting equipment was used to battle inferno which raged out of control for three hours. Thirteen people were injured during the holocaust.

Records Shatter In Oil Land Sale

U.S. Firm Pays Over $3 Million

Highest price paid for petroleum and natural gas rights in the history of Alberta's oil industry was paid yesterday by the Amerada Oil Corporation.

The Corporation yesterday offered $3,223,320 for the rights to section 16, township 57, range 21 west of the fourth meridian in the Redwater oilfield.

The section is immediately west of one for which Royalite Oil Co., last February, paid almost an equal amount and on which they now have 16 producing wells.

Some wells brought into production on the Royalite section had highest initial potentials of any producers in the Redwater field.

SURROUNDED BY WELLS

Producing wells also border the section on the south, west and north sides.

Amerada is an American firm with head offices in Delaware, Maryland. The company has done extensive exploration work in Alberta during the past two-and-a-half years.

Alberta offices of the firm are in Calgary.

Average price per acre paid for the oil and gas rights is $5,036.43. This is $93.48 more than the per acre price of $4,942.95 paid by Royalite for the adjoining section.

Production from the section will also be liable to the 12½ per cent royalty imposed by the Alberta government.

77 NOT ANNOUNCED

Disposal of 77 other parcels of Crown Reserve on which offers were accepted up to the close of business yesterday has not yet been announced by officials of the department of mines and minerals.

This was the third multi-million dollar sale of rights in the Redwater field this year. Last February 15, Royalite paid $3,153,491 for one section and British-American with Hudson's Bay Oil and Gas Company paid $2,044,880 for another.

Fresh View Urged On Rate Probe

Premier Manning Gives First Brief At Transport Meet

A fresh viewpoint toward Canada's transportation problems was urged on the Royal Commission on Transportation by Premier E. C. Manning at opening session of a two-day hearing here today.

It would be most unfortunate if the commission feels in the slightest degree bound by precedent laid down for regulation of transport rates, he said.

Alberta government presented two briefs at the morning session, one a general statement by Premier Manning, and the second a study of the relation between transportation facilities and resource use, prepared and presented by Prof. Andrew Stewart of the University of Alberta.

13 MORE BRIEFS

This afternoon and tomorrow, 13 other briefs will be heard from representative business and civic groups.

Premier Manning suggested issues under study are "regional in nature and cannot be disposed of by methods which might serve to settle differences between individual competing shippers."

Regional dissatisfaction has existed for more than 50 years despite existence of a regulatory body created by Parliament to remove legitimate reasons for dissatisfaction.

ROOT OF PROBLEM

He said the commission should get to the root of the problem and understand reasons for such regional dissatisfaction.

Present transportation rate structure is "obsolete, discriminatory and unduly burdensome" to Alberta's economy, the premier said.

Because of Alberta's location, both inbound and outbound freight hauls are long. But "we recognize that distance imposes a disability upon us . . . the cost of linking east and west cannot fairly be assessed on the distance basis alone."

While the province does not propose a "postage-stamp" concept nor similar ideas that seek to eliminate the distance factor completely, it feels that unfair handicaps should not be allowed to affect the west adversely.

Transportation costs have greatly retarded development of Alberta's "virtually inexhaustible coal resources," the premier said. Figures will be introduced later to enable the commission to study effect of transportation costs on markets for Alberta coal.

Woman Killed By Small Car In West End

MacKenzie Henry Cassault was charged with manslaughter in police court today in connection with last night's traffic fatality which took the life of an 82-year-old woman.

He was remanded until June 26 for trial.

Police said Miss Rachael Manns Deans of 12206 111 avenue, died instantly when she was struck by a car at the intersection of 111 avenue and 124 street at 11:30 p.m. yesterday.

This is ninth Edmonton traffic fatality of the year, and second at the same corner. Three-year-old Glenn Barrie Taylor of 11112 123 street was killed in a similar accident there in May.

Cassault is believed to have been travelling north on 111 avenue when he struck the aged woman as she was crossing the street. Miss Deans is believed to be 82 years of age.

Cassault told police he was talking to his passenger, George Lakeman also of Edmonton, when he saw a person ahead.

He applied his brakes and swerved left, but could not avoid the collision, he said.

The woman's body was found on the north side of the intersection about 40 feet from the point of impact.

Passenger Lakeman is also in custody as a material witness.

Coalition Sweep Kills CCF Power Challenge in B.C.

VANCOUVER, June 16. — (CP)—A major CCF bid for power in British Columbia was shattered yesterday as the coalition government—a fusion of Liberals and Progressive Conservatives—wheeled into power for the third consecutive term—and with an increased majority in a record vote.

In an election described during the campaign as a battle between socialism and free enterprise, the CCF opposition of 11 in the last legislature was cut to six.

Lone uncertain seat was Cranbrook where CCF candidate Leo Nimsick nursed a slim 54-vote lead over Clifford Swan who sought re-election on the coalition ticket. Two polls of 19 remain unheard from. However, election of Nimsick has been conceded.

This is the picture compared to the 1945 standing:

	1949	1945
Coalition	40	37
CCF	6	10
Labor	1	1
Ind.	1	1
TOTAL	48	48

The coalition re-elected was reported by The Canadian Press only one hour and 20 minutes after polls closed.

Premier Byron Johnson, repeating his 1945 performance, was elected first in the province in winning New Westminster while his finance minister, Progressive Conservative Leader Herbert Anscomb, swept Oak Bay soon afterward. The full cabinet was returned excepting agriculture minister Frank Putnam, who resigned prior to the election because of his age.

Only lands minister R. C. Macdonald appeared pressed as CCF opponent William Hartley chased him hard to the finish.

CCF leader Harold Winch and his 70-year-old father, E. E. Winch, were re-elected but the party whip, Herbert Gargrave went down to defeat.

B.C. BALLOT TOTALS GIVE COALITION GAIN

VANCOUVER, June 16.—(CP)—Candidates of the Coalition government polled 62 per cent of a record vote in British Columbia's provincial election yesterday. In the 1945 election, the fusion of Liberals and Progressive Conservatives polled 56 per cent.

Tabulation by The Canadian Press of more than 88 per cent of the votes showed that CCF candidates received 35 per cent of the votes compared to 38 in 1945.

In the stalemate 1941 election which led to the coalition, Liberals polled 33 per cent of the vote and Conservatives 31.

With 2,144 of 2,421 polls reported, The Canadian Press tabulation follows (members elected in brackets):

	1949	1945	1941

Paving Plan Stymied By Specification Lack

City engineer's department is still waiting specifications from Dr. R. M. Hardy before a start can be made on experimental paving of 22 blocks of city streets with flexible asphalt black top.

Mayor Harry D. Ainlay said today the city has been ready for some weeks to go ahead with flexible non-concrete base paving of residential streets. Specifications setting forth gravel base required in the various areas to be tested and thickness of asphalting, must be first obtained from Dr. Hardy before the plan can be proceeded with.

Last week city commissioners received a general outline of the plan for flexible paving from Edmontan Chamber of Commerce. Dr. Hardy made the report at the request of the commerce body.

This report will likely be tabled at the special meeting of city council Monday night.

Mayor Ainlay pointed out that the city is not only anxious to proceed with the 22 experimental blocks of paving as recommended by Dr. Hardy, but will also do an additional 20 blocks on its own, once specifications have been received.

Tax Decision Causes Panic

OTTAWA, June 16. — (BUP) — Government tax experts met in an emergency session today to consider a court ruling that could invalidate hundreds of thousands of income tax returns prior to 1945.

The ruling was made by Justice E. R. Anhers of the Exchequer Court. He ruled that Joseph A. Cooper, a movie projectionist in Winnipeg, was entitled to deduct his union dues before making out his income tax for 1945.

The Justice's decision was based on a parallel with lawyers, who were allowed to deduct dues paid their law societies.

It was not expected the decision would affect income taxes paid after 1945. The income tax laws since have been amended to exclude such cases.

MERMAIDS WHO SWIM IN GLASS BOWLS . . .

YOKOHAMA, Japan, June 16.—(AP)—The "glamorous mermaids" caught the eyes of the U.S. soldiers at Yokohama trade fair.

The Japanese girl swimmers were cavorting in an oversized fishbowl on the stage.

The soldiers thought they would have some fun. They threw a couple of rocks at the bowl.

It broke.

The spectators down front—including the Americans—were flooded out.

INFATUATED WITH HIM

Split Personality Made Girl Shoot Ball Player

CHICAGO, June 16.—(UP)—The lovesick girl who shot ball player Eddie Waitkus probably is a split personality whose "bad side" perverted her hero worship and drove her to attack him, mental doctors said today.

"The real me is the person who shot Waitkus," Ruth Steinhagen, 19, told psychiatrists.

The slim attractive brunette, who attempted to kill Waitkus even though she had never met him, wanted to destroy him because there could be no happy solution to her wild infatuation, psychiatrists said.

On one side, Ruth was a quiet, well-mannered girl. She was above average in her studies at Jones Commercial High School and at business college. She came from a comfortable, well-managed middle-class home.

On the bad side, doctors said, she was a dreamer. This became her dominant personality. She spent hours mulling over pictures of the handsome 29-year-old Waitkus, his playing records and clippings about his activities. Once, when he passed near her outside a ball park, she nearly fainted.

Her infatuation broke up her home life. Her mother, Mrs. Edith Steinhagen, a plump, motherly woman, said the girl visited two psychiatrists last winter and spring for analysis on her emotions about Waitkus. They told her she must forget him and find other interests.

Finally the girl left home and moved to a small room where she "could be alone with Eddie's pictures," her mother said. She obtained a job as a typist with the Continental Casualty Company. In her free hours she set up a Waitkus "shrine" in her little room.

She told her mother months ago that she would get a gun "and kill Eddie and myself." Her mother didn't believe her. A girl friend, Helen Farazis, 18, attended games with Ruth and said Ruth "seemed out of this world" when she sat in the stands while Waitkus was playing.

Ruth said she has felt "better" since the shooting.

"I'm much more relaxed," she said. "Eddie was the kind of guy I wanted, and I decided to release my tension for good. The shooting did it."

"I might not have shot him if he had come in differently, without so much confidence," she said. "He swaggered in."

Detectives Deny Aid In Burke Statement

Two city detectives denied today they aided accused murderer Leo Burke prepare a statement following fatal stabbing last May 10 of Burke's brother-in-law, James W. Holmes.

Yesterday in Supreme Court, during third day of his trial, Burke swore words had been suggested for his statement by Detective Sergeant J. E. Peterson and Detective R. Dick.

Just before court rose for the noon recess today, Peterson and then Dick went into the witness box and flatly denied the accusation.

"IN ACCUSED'S WORDS"

"The statement was in accused's words from beginning to end," Peterson swore.

Surprise witness this morning was James Burke Holmes, 25-year-old son of the slain man.

Defence counsel Frank Dunne called young Holmes along with three witnesses who swore Jim Holmes Sr. "got a kick" out of making Burke angry.

James Burke Holmes denied he "had been spreading it around that he'd like to see Burke hang."

"That's a lie," Holmes swore.

Mr. Dunne continued:

TESTIMONY CONFLICTS

saying in beer parlors you're "going saying in her parlors you're "going to get even with Burke."

Holmes swore he hadn't.

Witness Holmes and three defence witnesses disagreed sharply as to Jim Holmes' physical strength as compared to that of accused.

Holmes swore his father and his uncle "were a good match."

Charles Reed, who swore he had known Jim Holmes since 1920, claimed the slain man was "quick as a cat" and that Burke was no match at all for him.

GOOD BOXER

Appearing for defence besides Reed were boxer Benny Tate and David George Reed. All three testified Holmes was a good boxer and that he had "put headlocks" on accused on many occasions.

Jim Holmes Jr. swore "you couldn't argue with Leo Burke.

Three Fires Still Burning

Forest fires raging in half-a-dozen areas of Northern Alberta were brought under control late yesterday.

Light showers fell throughout the northern part of the province, aiding fire fighters in the battle against flames.

Only three fires are out of control in the province today, one a fresh outbreak in the Lac La Biche district near Hart Lake, about 130 miles northwest of Edmonton.

Crew of 13 is fighting the blaze, using one bull dozer to build fire breaks.

In the isolated bush land north of Whitecourt, reinforcements to fire fighting crews are expected to reach fires at Mockway and Loegun Lake late today.

The blazes, now out of control, were spotted several days ago, but only fire rangers have been able to make their way through the dense, untracked bush land.

Late yesterday, fires which broke out Tuesday north of Lac La Biche, 125 miles northeast of Edmonton, at Fort Assiniboine, 75 miles northwest of the city, and southeast of High Prairie, 180 miles northwest of Edmonton, were controlled.

Serious blaze about 150 miles northeast of Edmonton near the Saskatchewan border was checked by crews rushed to the area by Alberta and Saskatchewan forestry departments.

Child Victim Loses Life

Joan McLaughlin 2, of Fort St. John, flown to Edmonton Tuesday after falling from her father's car, died in University Hospital yesterday.

The two-year-old twin was found on the Alaska highway Tuesday by an American traveller before he father, Clifford McLaughlin, a highway maintainence man, realized she had fallen from his car.

The child sustained severe head injuries and a brain operation failed to save her life.

Air-Minded Minister Refutes Drew's Attack

Canada's flying cabinet minister, Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of trade and commerce, proved himself air-minded in Edmonton today.

He arrived in the city by private plane this morning. He was scarcely out of the plane when he began talking airplanes, air traffic and airports.

Sharpest of his words were directed at his bitter critic, Progressive Conservative Leader Drew.

"Mr. Drew's charges are completely unwarranted, entirely ridiculous," he said of the Tory leader's claim that North Star planes used by the RCAF and by TCA on runs through Edmonton are unservicable.

"We believe the North Star is the finest four-engine plane in operation. We're happy to see the record it is building up for good service at the Edmonton airport and in other parts of Canada."

Of Edmonton airport, the man who commanded Canada's production battle during the war years said he was "very pleased" at increased traffic to result from concessions granted American airlines less than two weeks ago.

He chuckled at the suggestion Canada is "on the short end" of the air concession deal.

"I think it was a fair exchange of rights. We received what we wanted of air route rights in the States, and in Canada, American lines were given certain other rights which will benefit them.

PHILOSOPHIZING Cabinet Minister Howe tells ex-minister Sen. James A. MacKinnon his theory about photographers: "In public life, when they stop photographing you, you are no longer in public life." Both confident of Liberal victory in forthcoming election when they met today in Edmonton, neither seems alarmed photographers will forget them.

Cold War

Vancouver Counts Toll Of Big Industrial Fire

VANCOUVER, June 16.—(CP)—Ruins of seven buildings served today as a stark reminder of the fury of a fire which caused damage of $1,000,000 in this city's industrial area yesterday, raging through the heart of it to leave six more buildings partially and another five slightly damaged.

The blaze, Vancouver's worst in 10 years, broke out before dawn. Four alarms were turned in as it swept two blocks bounded by First avenue, from Ontario to Main, and False Creek. There was no loss of life, although four persons suffered burns and shock.

Those treated in hospital were John Erickson, 63; George Ingram, 24; Capt. C. Madison and Knute Reisburg.

WASTE-BURNER BLAMED

Many operators of plants affected believe wind-driven sparks from a waste-burner may have started the fire. Police and firemen rescued trapped houseboat dwellers from their flame-swept homes in commandeered boats, pulling men, women and dogs from the sizzling water within a few feet of the flames.

A second major fire two miles to the west was averted only after a blazing fishboat was beached after it had drifted into the highly-industrialized Coal Harbor area.

As the fire raged, fire engines and crews shuttled between the city's stations in an attempt to maintain skeleton staffs at each fire hall.

The blaze reminded spectators—who watched it by the hundreds—of the $1,000,000 conflagration which destroyed the Canadian Pacific Railway's pier D in 1938 and the SS. Greenhill Park explosion in 1945, another $1,000,000 disaster.

Alta. Oil to Alter National Economy

Premier Manning Says Fields Put Province Well in Black

Special to The Bulletin

GRANDE PRAIRIE, June 16.—Alberta's oil and natural gas, which have had a decided effect on the provincial economy during the past two years, may be expected to influence the national economy in the future.

This prediction was made by premier Ernest C. Manning, speaking at a special meeting of the Grande Prairie Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

Requirements of the prairie provinces, at between 55,000 and 65,000 barrels of oil daily, have already been reached under a system of voluntarily controlled production, though potential production, under the safest rate of withdrawal, has reached volume of 200,000 barrels daily, or three times the actual requirements of the prairies.

TWO-YEAR RECORD

This record had been achieved since a little over two years ago, when production was but one quarter of prairie needs.

In 1935, he said, total revenue of Alberta was $16 million, of which 50 per cent had to be devoted to payment of interest charges on public debt.

Today, revenue is over $65 million and of that, only ten per cent is sufficient to meet interest charges and also effect reduction of public debt principal at a rate that would result in entire liquidation within 31 years.

This year, he estimated revenue from natural resources alone at $14 million, including bonuses, fees and royalties from wells on crown land.

$16 MILLION EXPENDITURE

His government, under these improved circumstances and with an eye to the best future interests of all the people had decided to spend $16 million on roads, bridges and public buildings, believing it was its duty to do everything possible to open up new country and new resources to take the place of current inevitable depletion.

Solon Low, federal member from the riding, also spoke and called attention to the project of West Coast Transmission Co., which had received a Dominion charter to construct a natural gas pipeline through the northern part of Alberta across the border into British Columbia and from Prince George, south through the latter province to Vancouver and the Fraser River communities and eventually, cross the line to cities of great consuming capacity in United States.

GREAT IMPORTANCE

He called attention to it as indicative of the great importance now being attached to development of the northern resources of both provinces and urged such organizations as Chambers of Commerce to get behind enterprises of the kind with all their influence.

First recordible rainfall in 11 days fell in Edmonton at noon yesterday. It amounted to .01 inches.

Occasional showers are forecast for this afternoon, with a high of 60 degrees, rising to 65 tomorrow.

Rain was general in the southwest yesterday with Calgary receiving .21, Medicine Hat .13, Lethbridge .30, Kimberley .48, Jasper .39.

A Bit Long-Winded

KINGSTON, Jamaica, June 16.—(Reuters) — William Bustamente, Jamaican labor leader and chief cabinet minister, set up a marathon talking record lasting 4½ days when he completed yesterday his speech on the budget before the house of representatives.

Coalition Sweeps B.C. Election

Of the 14 women seeking election among the 138 candidates only two were successful. Both Nancy Hodges in Victoria and Mrs. Tilly Rolston in Vancouver Point-Grey will sit again with the coalition.

Neither the Social Credit party with 16 candidates nor its off-shoot, the Union of Electors with 12, elected a candidate.

The Coalition force, which broke down into 21 Liberals and 15 Progressive Conservatives at prorogation, stands now unofficially at 23 Liberals, 14 Conservatives and three straight Coalitionists with no previous party affiliation.

The elected Independent, James Mowatt, who failed to obtain the Coalition nomination in Alberni, sat as a Coalitionist in the last legislature.

Premier Johnson's post-election comment bore out his five-week-long campaign in which he had stressed a claim that a Socialist government in control at this time would hinder a province facing tremendous expansion. He termed the victory "a great one for free enterprise," and was heartily seconded by Mr. Anscomb.

Mr. Winch said the results "clearly indicate that the people drove the electorate to support the government in hope of maintaining job security and full employment."

Now with provincial election decks cleared, some B.C. federal candidates for the June 27 voting may feel freer to swing into action. The coalition's bid for provincial re-election toned down Liberal and Progressive Conservative federal campaigning to some extent.

PROROGATION STANDING

At prorogation, the CCF held seven of the province's 16 federal seats, Liberals four, Progressive Conservatives four and an independent one. Redistribution has added two seats.

The CCF nominated 18 federal candidates, the Liberals 16 and the Progressive Conservatives 15. An unofficial coalition is indicated in the three seats where only one of the old-line parties was nominated since all are CCF-held.

From still-incomplete provincial returns tabulated by the Canadian Press is developed that the coalition force yesterday received approximately 62 per cent of the total vote, compared to 56 in 1945. CCF candidates polled 35 per cent compared to 38 per cent.

Lethbridge To Improve Yards

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., June 15.—(CP)—Announcement of plans to spend $100,000 at Lethbridge stockyards to bring them up to standard as public stockyards was made today by Canadian Pacific Railway and Alberta Stockyards Co., Ltd. Work will start shortly.

Improvements will include a new administration building costing $38,000 together with extensions to the yards to take care of more livestock of all kinds, plus other requirements for fully modern terminal stockyard service.

Need for expansion of the yards and their conversion into public stockyards became evident last fall after the embargo on shipment of cattle and sheep to the U.S. market had been lifted. Lethbridge, being a strategic point for shipment of livestock to the United States west coast market, found itself without stockyards large enough to hold cattle and sheep for necessary veterinary regulations to be carried out.

Burke Claims Police Prompted Statement

He'd always pick something and hold it over your head."

Witness testified that Burke once smashed a headlight on his car following a discussion which ended in an argument. "That was the time accused held a knife to my dad's breast," he swore.

AVOIDED TROUBLE

"Dad said "you're too much of a coward to do it.'

Holmes swore his father, the slain man, always avoided trouble with Burke. "Dad was always pretty lenient. He always forgave Leo."

Defence counsel and prosecutor W. J. Shortreed are expected to sum up their cases this afternoon, with a verdict this after noon a possibility.

Death Struggle Told By Burke

Burke was on the stand during all of yesterday afternoon's testimony.

Earlier, he told court his version of the struggle which ended in the knife-death of painting contractor Jim Holmes.

SAW BLOOD SPURT

He testified he didn't know what was happening until he saw blood spurt from Holmes' neck. Horrified at the sight of blood, he testified:

"I pleaded with Jim to stop fighting. I said, 'For God's sake stop fighting. For God's sake, call a doctor.'"

He swore the only thought to enter his head was to help his brother-in-law.

Accused, said he was terrified of Holmes' fists.

"I was overcome by fear of Holmes and of going back to hospital. (Burke had just got out of hospital where he was treated for Tb. of the spine).

"I was afraid of Holmes physically, I knew I was no match for him."

Burke's voice broke and tears started from his eyes as he told court how his greatest concern following the fight was for Holmes. "I wanted to get away so someone could bring help to him."

Burke swore he didn't intend to kill Holmes.

"And I never wished his death," he said.

Accused told court he hitch-hiked to a friend's house following the fight at Jim Holmes' residence.

He said no one was home at his friend's house but he left a note for a woman named Alma.

The note which was introduced as evidence, read:

"Alma, honey: This is good bye. Jim Holmes and I fought. He hit me. I pulled a knife. I think he's dead. God help me. I loved him."

Then Burke told how he hailed a ride to the police station and gave himself up.

Burke earlier testified that Holmes threatened to "beat my can off." He added that Holmes said: "You don't have your brother Joe to help you this time."

Burke swore he pleaded, "Don't do it Jim. I just got out of hospital.

ACCUSED STRONG

Mr. Shortreed, during cross examination, asked accused if he hadn't always admired himself as a strong man.

"I've been proud of the strength in my right arm."

"You are a good swimmer, aren't you?"

"No sir."

"You used to lift your nephews with one arm, didn't you?"

"That statement is untrue."

"Did you consider that you had such legs and arms necessary to operate an aircraft?"

"I felt I could. I was surprised when they admitted me. But I didn't mention I was suffering from Tb. of the spine."

Burke told, under questioning, of an argument he had had with Holmes more than two years ago. He swore Holmes had upheld Hitler and Mussolini and concentration camps and persecution of Jews.

Philly Slugger Is Improved

CHICAGO, June 16.—(AP)—Eddie Waitkus, popular Philadelphia Phillies first baseman who was shot by a 19-year-old girl admirer, was reported "a bit improved" today.

The assailant who said she was secretly in love with him was summoned into felony court on a charge of assault with intent to murder the star player, who was shot near the heart by a .22-calibre rifle bullet.

Hospital authorities, who termed his condition "fair to poor" yesterday, said this morning that he was better.

Hoppers Blackball Arch For 128,000,000 Massacre

WORLAND, Wyo., June 16—(AP) — Affable Archie Geiser, who rassled a lot of C-54 transports over the hump during the war, went on a bombing mission and killed 128,000,000 of the enemy.

His victims were grasshoppers. His bomb load was 7,350 pounds of poison bran.

This happened on a single flight yesterday. Archie is making about eight a day and will continue this schedule for 30 days, which certainly should make him number one on the grasshoppers' blacklist.

Geiser pilots a C-47 which is the spearhead in the government's air war to head off a new grasshopper invasion of the grain belt, about 25 other smaller planes are being used.

The 128,000,000 is a theoretical but conservative figure. Ground investigations after previous flights have shown a kill of 90 to 95 per cent of the 'hoppers in the area pelted with poison.

Geiser was bombarding a section in which experts had estimated the 'hopper population at a minimum of 20 in the square yard. He sprayed 1,470 acres in the single flight.

The bran was funneled from trucks into a compartment which takes up most of the fuselage of the C-47. A 15-minute flight put the plane over its target area—a stretch of eroded land at the base of a low mountain range.

Geiser and other pilots are expected in the coming month to wipe out the grasshopper menace over an area of 35,000,000 acres.

Here, say experts of the United States department of agriculture, the infestation is just as bad as it was in the late 30's when a 'hopper plague cost farmers in the northern plains states $250,000,000 in crops damage.

Clarke Stadium Materials To Come From Old Stand

HOWE SAYS GOV'T O.K. GIVEN HOTEL

The Dominion's purse strings have been loosened —by $4,000,000—to finance Edmonton's Macdonald hotel extension.

Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of trade and commerce, said in Edmonton today "there is nothing to stop construction of the Macdonald hotel extension if city and CNR officials reach a tax agreement."

(Earlier, failure of hotel authorities and city officials to complete a tax arrangement was blamed for delay in building the 16-storey proposed addition.)

Mr. Howe said the federal cabinet approved expenditure of the estimated cost of the extension when considering the Canadian National Railway budget for the current year's spending.

Cost of the hotel addition will be about $4,000,000.

Materials from Exhibition grounds grandstand, slated for demolition, may be used to build the new Clarke Stadium extension, Mayor Harry D. Ainlay said today.

Edmonton Exhibition Association plans to erect a new concrete-steel grandstand this summer, costing approximately $500,000.

Mayor Ainlay said engineers had looked over the present east end grandstand with a view to ascertaining how much of the material could be salvaged for use in the Clarke Stadium construction.

$25,000 AUTHORIZED

Council authorized expenditure of $25,000 for a duplicate grandstand at Clarke stadium at last Monday's meeting.

The mayor said it might be possible to use the roof with heavy supporting trusses at the old Exhibition grandstand for the Clarke field extension, thereby saving a considerable amount of money voted for the Clarke stadium.

He thought it might be possible to roof the new extension and the old stand at Clarke stadium with materials from the exhibition stand.

In the meantime, the city will go ahead with sewer and water extensions to the Clarke stadium site and preparing of foundations.

NEW SERVICE

Best friend of homeward bound American tourists and vacationing Albertans is Dan. E. C. Campbell, director of tourist publicity for the province. Mr. Campbell's office is now making available to travelers a daily road report, covering highways in all American states. Similar reports from Canadian provinces are also available at the Alberta Travel Bureau, legislative building.

FRESH AND FREE

"People in Alberta are luckier than anybody in the world." So thinks Wm. Taite-White, Brooks postmaster and executive member of the Alberta Postmasters' Association. Relaxing for a moment this morning he said "Alberta is big and fresh and free . . . lots of room to breathe. And opportunity galore for everybody, especially young people."

ALL'S QUIET

Corner offices of the legislative building were silent today, as most of their usual occupants—government cabinet members—were out of town.

Hon. David A. Ure, minister of agriculture, is in Nanton where he will open the annual stampede; Hon. Ivan Casey, minister of education, is attending a meeting of Athabasca School Trustees at Meanook; Hon. N. E. Tanner, minister of mines and forests, is in the Hardisty district to address election meetings, and Hon. Lucien Maynard, attorney-general, is in the Lac la Biche district for the same purpose. Hon. Dr. J. L. Robinson, minister of industries and labor, has speaking engagements in southern Alberta. Hon. D. B. MacMillan is inspecting roads in the Jasper area.

Only ministers in the city were Hon. Dr. W. W. Cross, minister of health, Hon. C. E. Gerhart, minister of municipal affairs, Hon. A. J. Hooke, economic affairs minister, and Premier E. C. Manning. Mr. Manning spent most of the day at the Transport Board's freight rates hearing.

HAS EXCUSE

Ald. Fred Mitchell may have missed last Monday's important city council meeting but he thinks he has a good excuse. Mr. Mitchell returned last night from attending the annual conference of Canadian mayors and municipalities in Quebec City. As president of the Union of Alberta Municipalities, Ald. Fred Mitchell contends that he just couldn't get out of making that trip east. Ald. C. E. Garlepy and Ald. James Douglas, pinch-hitting for the injured Mayor Harry D. Ainlay, were official representatives of the city at the conference. They have not yet returned.

Labor Men Hail Dues Decision

Exchequer Court Rules Union Fees Tax Deductible

Edmonton labor union leaders hail with satisfaction the Exchequer Court of Canada decision ruling union dues deductible for income tax purposes.

Reaction was to a court ruling in the case of a Winnipeg motion picture projectionist, who won an appeal against a decision of income tax officials that $35 union dues paid in 1945 could not be deducted from income tax payments.

BERG DELIGHTED

Vice-President Carl Berg of the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress said today:

"I am delighted over the decision of the court. It is something that the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress has been fighting to obtain for several years. It has been the subject of many resolutions and briefs at annual conventions but up until now has not received favorable reception.

"Unless the federal government appeals to a higher court, union members in Alberta will act according to the judgment of the Exchequer Court and deduct their union dues from returns of earnings to the income tax department."

45,000 AFFECTED HERE

Mr. Berg estimated that approximately 45,000 members of Alberta trade unions will be affected by the court decision.

The labor leader estimated average dues paid by union members to be about $1.50 per month.

In some unions dues run high. Some electrical workers, for example, pay as much as $200 per year. International Typographical Union is another trade body where the dues are quite steep.

JUST DECISION

"We believe the judgment of the court is very just," said Mr. Berg.

"After all, labor unions are social agencies, working for the betterment of its own members and society as a whole. Most unions have pension retirement or health insurance schemes. We have always felt that monies paid from dues for these benefits should be just as entitled to deduction for income tax purposes as in the case of commercial insurance policies."

Honorary president, Rev. Sister Edwin; president, Gordon Newton; first vice-president, John R. Wilson; second vice-president, Mrs. Joseph Hanley; secretary, Mrs. F. Hart; and treasurer, Mrs. H. M. McCaffrey.

Seed Growers Warned Incomes May Go Down

Profits for Canadian seed growers during the next nine years may show a slight decrease over the same period just past.

This was warning made to Canadian Seed Growers Association last night by Honorable David Ure, Minister of Agriculture for Alberta.

Pointing out seed growers have increased their incomes for the past 16 years, Mr. Ure stated it would not be wise to think the pace can continue.

INCOMES WAY UP

Seed growers have exceeded their 1935 incomes by 141 per cent. During the depression year 12-mo: income was $98. Past year has been best ever, average earning per family reaching $1,767.

Figures for past nine years show an average income of $1,041.

"CSGA has taken an active part in the clean seed campaign," he told a large audience. "I would like to see the work expand. Dominion government has launched a clean seed project for municipalities.

CAMROSE AHEAD

"Camrose, in co-operation with the government and people of the community, has taken great strides in seed cleaning campaigns. It has caught on with a great per centage of seed growers and farmers. It will soon pay big dividends."

Other communities and municipalities should see the need for such a project and get busy and build, he concluded.

MILNER'S the MAN Who Means Progress FOR EDMONTON

West Edmonton Progressive Conservative Association

COINS BY THE TON

Man Has So Much Money He Hands It Out in Loads

Man with "most money in Canada" arrived in Edmonton yesterday.

He is W. C. Ronson, master of the Royal Canadian Mint in Ottawa, who arrived from Winnipeg with his wife.

"Master of the mint is a fine old English title," he said, "but it doesn't mean a great deal. Making money is still a Royal prerogative."

First Canadian mint, he said, was established in 1908, a branch of the Royal Mint in England. Although operated with Canadian capital it was manned by Englishmen until 1932 when it was taken over by the Canadian government. That was the beginning of the Royal Canadian Mint.

The Ottawa mint, besides making all the coins for Canada, Newfoundland and the British West Indies, refines all the gold mined in Canada.

Mint was intended to produce a maximum of 30,000,000 coins a year but during the war demand became so great production was increased to 150,000,000 pieces.

And even that, he said, was not enough to satisfy the demand created by more wages than ever before and extra coppers demanded by seven-cent candy bars and sales taxes.

Current production runs around 100,000,000 pieces yearly.

Coins, when they are worn or mutilated, are melted for re-minting.

Re-Organize Recreation

It would have saved a lot of valuable time if the city council had adopted Mayor Ainley's forthright suggestion that the commissioners be given power to set up a committee to re-organize recreational functions in Edmonton.

But the council wants the commissioners to "get to the bottom of what the Recreation Commission wants and what is behind the request."

Surely there is no secret about what the Recreation Commission wants when it asks for a committee to frame a bylaw that will consolidate and re-organize all the work of recreation in this city.

What the Recreation Commission wants is a clear definition of its duties and powers and a constitutional set-up in which it will know exactly where it stands.

It is not only a reasonable and timely request but it touches upon a need that is definitely overdue.

Like all other branches of civic government that start out in a nebulous way, the Recreation Commission has come to feel the need for a legal standing commensurate with the importance of the work it does.

Authority that was good enough for the Commission when its work was almost entirely experimental is certainly not good enough now now that its work has become definite and of wide and beneficial scope.

So far as we can gather, the Recreation Commission is not asking that it be given supreme authority in all matters pertaining to parks, playgrounds, athletic fields, play fields, stadiums, field houses, auditoriums, parkways, nature trails and swimming pools.

But it is asking that all these matters of kindred significance be brought under a single authority so that the present confusion in the co-ordinated operation of these things should be mitigated.

Nor do we consider it necessary that the Recreation Commission be named as the branch of civic government controlling all these things.

Council may decide that a more strongly constituted and entirely separate parks board should be placed in charge of these activities.

But it is necessary and urgently necessary that the whole field of recreation in Edmonton be covered by a single authority.

It should not be difficult to prepare a bylaw towards that end.

Postmasters Conclude Convention

Edmonton regrets that the postmasters' convention in this city has been of such short duration because there is considerable satisfaction in playing host to men and women who perform a vital function in every Alberta community.

It affords a particular satisfaction to honor men and women who perform that function with extraordinary devotion and efficiency.

It is no secret to anybody that the success or failure of a postal system depends almost entirely upon personnel. And it depends mostly upon that section of the personnel which is immediately in touch with the public.

In short, good postmasters can make even a poor system work. They can make a good system, such as Canada's, of inestimable value to the economic and social life of the country.

For that reason, the postmasters of Alberta occupy a strategic and important place in the business and domestic structure of the province.

Alberta is fortunate in the calibre of the men and women who perform this vital function.

It has been pleasant and profitable to make their acquaintance.

Results of Bus Service Curtailment

The preposterous folly of cutting off all street car and bus service in Edmonton at one o'clock each morning is almost absurdly illustrated in the fact that belated Edmontonians are driven to stealing bicycles in order to get home.

The fact is that bicycle thefts in the early hours of the morning have substantially increased since the curtailment in night bus service went into effect.

And police have had no difficulty in connecting the one with the other.

This curtailment of night service was initiated over the protests of many, including The Edmonton Bulletin, that an owl service should be maintained as a public convenience no matter whether a few thousand dollars were lost or not.

We stated that the loss in the owl service was due to the fact that the triple fare was unreasonable and that few people cared to pay 25 cents to ride on a bus when 50 cents would carry two of them in a taxi to most sections of the city.

Apparently some persons have evolved a third solution. They steal bicycles. And it all comes from rolling up the civic carpets at one a.m.

It Is Not the Canadian Way

Premier Joseph Smallwood of Newfoundland has made no contribution to the Liberal party by threatening, as has been alleged, to deprive electors of the benefits of government if they voted against their Liberal candidate.

That is not the Canadian way and it is not the Liberal way. And Mr. Smallwood should be made to understand it.

Long before the plebiscite of union with Canada was taken in Newfoundland, The Edmonton Bulletin warned of the dangers of a close vote on the issue.

The electors whom Mr. Smallwood is said to have thus bludgeoned are dissenters who did not support his union plans.

Immediately after the plebiscite, The Bulletin said that since the vote in Newfoundland had been so very close, one of the first duties of the larger Canadian confederation would be to safeguard the rights of the minority in the new province.

Apparently Mr. Smallwood is not concerned with that advice which came from many quarters. For one of his first official acts, if the report is true, is to penalize these people for their reluctance to Join with Canada.

This attitude is not proper in a free nation. It is not the kind of treatment to be accorded free people.

Every citizen of Newfoundland has the right to vote exactly as he chooses without fear or favor and Prime Minister St. Laurent would do well to repudiate Mr. Smallwood and make that principle abundantly clear.

ODDS AND ENDS By Harold L. Weir

Synod Offends Friends By Officious Resolution

The synod of the Anglican diocese of Toronto has sent out to every daily newspaper in Canada a copy of a resolution it passed late in May.

This resolution refers to a statement recently made by the Canadian Daily Newspapers' Association on the freedom of the press as follows:

"All liberty, of course, involves obligations. The obligation of a free press is to be truly free. It must be thorough, accurate and unbiased in its reporting, sincere and thoughtful in its editorials, and resistant to all outside pressure. It must be both cautious and bold—cautious until it knows all the facts, bold when it is sure of its ground. It must, above all, be inspired by devotion to the public welfare as its staff understands it."

WEIR

After quoting the above statement, the resolution of the synod of the Anglican diocese of Toronto goes on to say:

"And that whereas the presentation of sensational and sordid material in the press has a demoralizing effect upon the minds of the readers and appeals to their emotions and their morbid curiosity rather than to their reasoning;

"Therefore be it resolved that this synod, while expressing approval of the limited presentation of features encouraging religious life and interest, expresses its disapproval of the lower features referred to above and appeals to the press to adhere more closely to the principles laid down in its own statement and avoid sensationalism in its presentation of news and bias in its reports on social and moral issues."

Stupid, Insolent

As an Anglican and, I hope, a devout and loyal Anglican, I consider this resolution passed by the synod of the diocese of Toronto to be officious, insolent and stupid.

And when the synod of the diocese of Toronto distributes copies of this silly and impudent resolution to all the press of Canada, I consider it is going out of its way to offend and humiliate a great many newspapers which are the Church's warm friends.

To sift and sort out news and print only the pleasant and uplifting phases of it would be nothing less than an atrocious fraud on those people who buy and support newspapers.

A reader subscribes to a newspaper to get a cross-section of what is happening in the world.

A great many unpleasant and unwholesome things happen in the world.

But the reader is entitled to hear about those things just as he is entitled to hear about the nice things.

Whatever religious bodies may consider themselves to be, the press does not consider itself to be a censor of public information.

Nor does it feel justified in creating the entirely false illusion that life is all beer or skittles, or perhaps I had better say, under the circumstances, all sweetness and light.

Not Pick And Choose

I have called this resolution of the synod of the diocese of Toronto a stupid resolution because it asks the press to do what the synod would not dream of doing itself.

So far as I know it is not the practice of great churchmen or great clergymen to close their eyes to the dark spots in human life and the unclean corner in human nature.

On the contrary, I had cherished the impression that the Church existed primarily for the salvation of sinners and that without the "sensational and sordid" in life there would be no need for the ministrations of the Church.

Is the press, then, expected to hush and curtain these events which exhibit human nature as it is and not human nature as it should be?

It seems to be a strange request for any church body to make.

Certainly it is a stupid one.

The press does not ask the synod of Toronto to suppress those sections of the Holy Bible that deal with the salacious adventures of David nor the part that tells of the sharp practice of Jacob.

The synod should not ask the press to suppress news nor should it accuse the press of wanton dishonesty in what the synod of Toronto is pleased, in its patronizing way, to call "bias."

Offensive Demand

This resolution is offensive and ungrateful because newspapers throughout Canada bend over backward to give religious bodies all the publicity they possibly can.

The only reason religious bodies in general and the Church of England in particular do not get more publicity is that their organizations for publicity are notoriously ineffective.

Newspapers are willing and anxious to co-operate in every possible way to enlarge and expedite the work of the Christian Church.

That is why this down-the-nose protest is offensive and unwise.

It is offensive and unwise, just as it is uncharitable and embarrassing, to insult the profession of journalists who try to be decent Christians.

How To Torture Your Husband

Letters to the Editor

Low Form Of Sport

Editor, Bulletin — Last night we went out to see the wrestling match and I watched one of the lowest types of sportsmanship I care to witness.

After the man was down with an injury of the neck so painful he was rolling, his opponent went back again and stepped on his throat bringing down his weight. Even the referee was hurtled across the ring while he did the dirty work and when the St. John Ambulance was in attendance they still had to watch him.

The thing that got me was that our juvenile children were asking for autographs as mementos.

My God! is this what we are teaching our children to remember?

McNaughton was hoping to make decent law-abiding citizens out of our children by teaching them how to obey the law, clean living, clean sports and above all sportsmanship, because he called it "Junior Police Force" which stands for law and order we believe it in the ash can without looking into it.

Edmontonians, if our kids are going to fall for it because we, the people, are asleep and brother, are we asleep.

Everybody says 'let Joe do it. Jim too busy.

Are you! or don't you give a darn?

Laborers Haven't Passes

Editor, Bulletin—Why is it necessary for Commissioner Menzies, Supt. Ferrier and Asst. Supt. McDonald, of the Edmonton Transit System, to go away to a convention in order to get more knowledge to operate the buses and street cars to give more and better service?

Mr. Norman D. Wilson, the super-expert, was in the city about a month this year and suggested changes and one of the most important was to cut out all passes.

This the mayor and aldermen refused to carry out as that would cut them out of free transportation which is a special privilege they have whether it is business connected with the city or otherwise. Laborers in the engineer's department don't have passes.

The city commissioner had a big surprise yesterday at 9:15 in the morning as the Civic block was flooded by our residents protesting against such action as digging holes and burrying garbage so close to the buildings and burning at the same time.

Alleges Favoritism

Editor, Bulletin—The Bulletin in the past has done some marvelous work in our city. However, there is one job, I think, needs a little work on and no one but The Bulletin can do it.

We all know that there are families of two, three and four living in one-room apartments, garages and old shacks and we also all don't know is that the city of Edmonton operates suites (old Dawson Creek huts) and these are very nice living quarters and cost somewhere in the neighborhood of $25 or $30 a month.

To obtain one of these, I understand two or more kids are the necessary qualifications and of course, personal influence also plays a big part. Sounds quite reasonable, but there appears to be favoritism in the allotment of these suites.

I am not talking through my at. I could name five families there with not one child. One in particular I will mention here is a case where the man sold his house because of a disorder he could realize from the sale of it. He was not worried because he told me his father knows people in the city block and could get a suite cheap and still be $400 ahead. His child, not yet one month old.

His application did not take long to be filled considering he had no family at all one month ago. Some lads have had their names listed for two years and more only neither they, nor their fathers know the right people.

Chinese Revolt

Editor, Bulletin.—Maybe you think that Communism is a way of life and that the Chinese situation could come to equilibrium in time? But you might as well say that fire is a way of growth. As fire is not a way to communism is to civilization—not a buildup but, in fact, the very burning down.

Now if 500 million Chinese could not sustain a stable regime in individual enterprise how could they ever do it in Communism? Why? The evil that existed before, instead of lessening, will be multiplied a thousand times. What will be the consequence? Well, if the Chinese are not to eliminate themselves then it is going to be the creation of the greatest mass of destitutes the world has ever known.

Do not make a mistake by comparing the Chinese revolution to its Russian counterpart in magnitude of an evil. The latter was early stabilized by the constitution existing out of itself which the former has no such prospect in view being as it is a thing imported from the RANCHUK. duces from without.

"Sex Education Kills Modesty"

Editor, Bulletin. — I wish to register a strong protest against the introduction into our schools of detailed sex education by means of films, especially when unaccompanied by any moral teaching.

There is already sufficient sex education in connection with botany and biology, where it occurs naturally, and any more would give the subject an unwholesome prominence in the child's mind.

This knowledge should not be forced upon school children, who are not sufficiently mature to place sex in its proper relationship to the general scheme of things. It can only lead to an increase in juvenile delinquency, by destroying that modesty which is the natural protection of both boys and girls.

Why should we always copy the mistakes of the U.S.? Judging by the great majority of the novels and advertising, that pour from its presses, it must be the most sex-obsessed nation on earth.

Justice For All

Editor, Bulletin—I am a taxpayer, a businessman of one year on Jasper avenue, in 99 block, and a veteran. I have invested a sum of money into my business that I had accrued from hard work and thrift.

Now I stand to lose all if the proposed plan for the Macdonald hotel, parking area and park is passed through.

Nobody from the city administration has come to inquire whether I would like that or not; nor do I believe they have asked any one of the 35 business men in this block. I know that not one of us is willing to vacate his property, nor would we like to be pushed out, without a place to start our business, over again; we don't like it. Would you if you found yourself in the same predicament?

I was born, raised and educated in this city, which is a part of Canada, and I have been taught the principles of democracy, and served in the forces to preserve democracy, but if these 35 business men, including myself are pushed out in the street, then where is this democracy?

There are 35 business men, 56 people with sleeping accommodation and 281 people employed in this block. I believe nearly all of them have a vote. These people are most concerned in regards to the hotel plan, and are most worried.

If these people have no right, then I'm sure the property owner in this city, manufacturer, etc., is safe, because if you don't help us to take up this fight for our cause, then maybe at some future date you may find yourself in the same predicament, and you may find you'll have no one to help you in your time of need if you fail to help us now.

These buildings in the 99 block would have their face lifted, but the city is advising against it.

Why not build Macdonald hotel closer to the CN station, since there is vacant property there? That would mean an increase in tax revenue for the city, instead of having that property as dead weight and a drag on the taxpayers.

Smiles

"But I thought . . ." began the typist meekly.

"It's not your business to think," snapped the manager. "Just you take down what I say, word for word, and keep your own ideas to yourself."

So that afternoon the following letter was brought for him to sign:

"Dear Mr. Browne,—Write it with an 'e.' Pure swank—his father was a gardener. With regard to your letter, of whatever date it was; I can quote you the following prices. Hil Thompson! It's that outsider Browne. How much shall we stick on? Twenty per cent! Make it thirty? Righto. Ten bucks a ton. Awaiting your esteemed order, I am, yours truly. That's settled him."

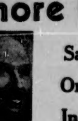

A distinguished visitor to an insane asylum went to the telephone and found difficulty in getting his connection. Exasperated, he shouted to the operator:

"Look here, girl, do you know who I am?"

"No," was the calm reply," but I know where you are."

Elmore Philpott

Says Nationalism Only Vital Force In Germany Today

PHILPOTT

BASLE, SWITZERLAND—This Swiss city, so calm, prosperous and neat, seems a good place to roundup our conclusion on the German trip.

Frankly, we were surprised at the relative state of welfare of the people which was so much better than what we had expected.

It is hard to write that after spending even two days in a shambles like 1949 Hamburg. But nevertheless it is true, after crossing all Germany.

If the conquerors of Germany were to get out tomorrow, and if Germany were able to set up any kind of government even as workmanlike as those which held office between the going of the Kaiser and the coming of Hitler, Germany would make a comeback that would literally astonish the world.

Queer Mood

Germany is in a puzzling mood today.

It would be sheer presumption for a hop-skip-and-jump visitor like myself to pretend to know what "the Germans" think.

But certain things do quickly become pretty clear.

The Germans loathe the fact of the Allied occupation. If only the Russians did not hold Eastern Germany, they would have set up a concerted roar long before this to get back control of their own country. But they are torn now between two conflicting emotions.

One is desire to see all foreign troops get out. The other is the fear that if all foreign troops do get out, the country will fall entirely into direct or indirect Russian control.

I talked to one person who told me the inside story in Germany well. I won't say where, for it might prove embarrassing. But here was the answer to one question.

I asked how it was that the Communist Party in Germany had never made any real comeback after the recent war—in view of the fact that it used to be the strongest in the entire world, even including Soviet Russia?

He reminded me that Hitler had murdered literally hundreds of thousands of Communists or potential Communist recruits.

But he admitted that German working class fear of complete Russian occupation, of Russian domination, had had a profound effect.

The survivors of the old Communist Party were often deserting politics. The potential Communists were not joining the German party until they make good and sure just what Russian policy in Germany and Europe means.

Vital Force

I asked many responsible people who have an intimate inside knowledge of Germany.

All agreed that German nationalism is the only really vital force in the country today.

But neither it nor any other political gospel, old or new, has any organized following strong enough to change the picture much in the near future.

I see absolutely no hope for Germany, Europe or the world on the basis of going back to the system of competitive nationalism.

If we are fools enough to do so, nothing can prevent Germany from becoming the strongest single power in Europe.

But in a genuine European federation, or world federation, based on democracy the German human being would be one of the greatest assets.

It is dynamic, as a military power in a world of power politics, that has been this century's headache. But the German man or woman would be no problem in a sane world order.

And I have never seen finer kids than the one like the little, unknown towhead boy who gave our Swedish bus the "V for Victory" salute as our buss whizzed south towards the Swiss border.

People in the United States are watching with intense interest the advent of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Jr., into national politics, and not a few are wondering just what it means to a young man to follow in the footsteps of a famous father. Is it an advantage to the son or a handicap?

Years ago in England I put that rather searching question to my good friend, the late Sir Austen Chamberlain. He then was foreign secretary and had written his name indelibly into history as a prime mover in, and a signatory of, the Locarno Treaty of Peace in 1925.

Sir Austen was son of the noted statesman Joseph ("Joe") Chamberlain. He also was brother of Neville who, as prime minister, later tried the unhappy experiment of appeasing Hitler—an experiment which our columnist witnessed at close range, having followed the prime minister to his conferences in Berchtesgaden, Godesberg and, finally, Munich. You will note that one brother was fortunate and the other encountered disaster.

I was spending the day with Sir Austen at his country home when I broached the question of how the fame of a father affected a son at the beginning of the latter's career. The foreign secretary smiled reminiscently, as he looked back more than a generation of Liberal, he was elected by acclamation.

Floor Price Legislation Argued 'Depression-proof'

Two diversified subjects—agriculture and television—headlined the general election campaign last night.

Prime Minister St. Laurent, touring eastern Ontario's farming communities, promised that floor prices enacted by the Liberals will ensure that "never again will farm products be given away for ridiculously low prices."

CCF leader M. J. Coldwell, moving into Alberta, charged that the Liberal government has moved agriculture back into the era of "uncontrolled markets and prices, on which speculators thrive, farmers go broke and the consumers starve."

PRIVATE TV ASKED

Television was injected into the campaign by George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, who suggested at London, Ont., that private interests be allowed to give the Canadian people television if they want to do so. At present, he said, TV is to be developed only by the CBC.

The three spoke as the coalition government of British Columbia, made up of Liberals and Progressive Conservatives, swept back into power in a provincial general election. Strength of the official CCF opposition in the legislature was reduced.

Mr. St. Laurent speaking at Renfrew, said Liberal policies have provided a stability which agriculture never before has known and have underwritten, through floor prices, a financial condition which will "enable the farmer to maintain a decent standard of living in future years."

NO DEPRESSION

Floor price legislation for farm products has not yet been extensively used, but it will ensure that there would be no return to the depression days after the First World War. Family allowances, too, are a "good national investment."

Mr. Coldwell, at Wetaskiwin, Alta., accused the government of playing into the hands of food speculators and ignoring the needs and wants of farmers and consumers.

PAINLESS TV

Mr. Drew said before a rally in London, Ont., that if private interests are allowed to go ahead they will give the Canadian people television without cost to the taxpayer. The government is insisting that the CBC develop television at the expense of the taxpayer.

E. B. Jolliffe, Ontario CCF leader, said at Port Arthur that both Liberals and Progressive Conservatives are promising social security measures in the campaign only because of their "hunger for office and fear of the CCF."

PROMOTED—Gordon Gray, who volunteered as a buck private in the Second World War and rose to the rank of captain, promised in Washington D.C., to perform duties of army secretary in a "creditable manner." President Truman nominated him for promotion from army undersecretary to secretary.

MOSCOW, June 16.—(Reuters)—Russian biologists have produced a new breed of cattle which promises a great future within the Arctic Circle, it was claimed yesterday.

The new breed, it was added, was produced by following the laws of Michurin genetics.

It was the ideas of Ivan Michurin, Russian biologist and gardener, which Trofim Lysenko developed to challenge theories held by western scientists based on Gregor Mendel's experiments.

Reds Defensive In Cold Warfare

U.S. Officials Find Clue To New Cominform Concern

WASHINGTON, June 16.—(AP)—State department officials today found evidence that even the Communists feel they now are on the defensive in the cold war in Europe.

The clue to what may be a radical turn in Communist leadership estimates of the east-west conflict came in a bulletin of the Communist International Information Bureau.

As reported from Bucharest where it is published, the bulletin says it now is the "cardinal task" of Communists to block the spread of Americanism.

DEEP CONCERN

Officials here said that this, coupled with the charge that the United States is trying to "poison" working classes with American ideas, indicates the Soviet-led Cominform is deeply concerned over the west's success to date in fighting Communism.

They speculate that this concern now dominates top Communist thinking in contrast with an earlier Communist pre-occupation with expansion of their own power and influence. If this analysis is correct, it may mark a switch in Communist tactics in Europe—from primary emphasis on expansion westward to a new stress on holding the line in eastern Europe.

YUGOSLAVIA FOCUS?

This view is in accord with official American estimates of the cold war struggle. According to these, the next phase of the battle between western influences and Soviet Communism—apart from Germany—may well lie in eastern Europe, with Yugoslavia providing the initial testing ground.

Several current developments are cited to support this view. On the western side these include:

1. Negotiations between Britain and Yugoslavia for an $800,000,000 trade agreement under which Yugoslavia would receive badly-needed manufactured goods.

2. A conference this week in Paris between State Secretary Dean Acheson of the United States and Cavendish Cannon, United States ambassador to Belgrade, on relations with Yugoslavia. This also is believed to have been concerned with making available to Marshall Tito a greater flow of goods from the west.

3. Diplomatic authorities here expect a continued loosening of American restrictions on trade with Tito. The United States is prepared to support a Yugoslav application for a multi-million dollar loan from the world bank for industrial development.

On the Communist side, all signs indicate that the Cominform is getting ready to try to crush Tito. This may take the form of intensifying the economic blockade maintained against Yugoslavia by Russian-led eastern European Communist countries.

Buchmanism Sees Germany Potential World Teacher

By Lynn Heinberling

CAUX-SUR-MONTREUX, Switzerland, June 16.—(AP)—Two thousand Germans will make their way to this breath-taking mountain resort this summer to meet Dr. Frank Buchman, 71-year-old apostle of Moral Rearmament and "inspired democracy."

Although Dr. Buchman never attacks Communism frontally in his pronouncements, he makes it clear that these German pilgrims—ranging from minister presidents to miners—are expected to return to Germany with "superior ideology." Germany is the focal point of moral rearmament's program this year.

"Germany is one of the nations that is going to teach the world," Dr. Buchman said in an interview. Communism in his statements although the whole program of MRA is designed to "give the answer to both Fascism and Communism." Dr. Buchman said: "You don't have to talk about Communism. You've got something better. And it works."

Dr. Buchman, founder of the Oxford Group which later adopted the name Moral Rearmament, speaks always in short, sharp sentences. He is friendly and sociable. While he admits that he can not now keep "Moral Rearmament is the answer in Germany."

Asked why he rarely mentions up with all the developments in his movement personally, he appears to have an unfailing memory for the men and women who trek here annually to hear his message repeated day after day.

"CHANGE" TALKED

To the casual visitor, some of the phrases which sound and resound in the large ballroom of the Movement's hotel headquarters here may sound grandiose and puzzling.

Dr. Buchman is apt to talk about "God-Control". The word "change" is one of the most frequently used —"economic change. Social change. National change. International change. All based on personal change." A book of Dr. Buchman's messages is entitled "Remaking the World."

But the palatial hotel which serves as headquarters is bursting with visitors. Cabinet ministers, diplomats, industrialists and ordinary workmen come here to listen to the old message that the course of a country can be changed if enough of its citizens change their moral outlook on life.

Moral Rearmament, says Dr. Buchman, "is the inspired living that makes nations think and live."

Higher Pay For U.S. Servicemen

WASHINGTON, June 16.—(AP)—A compromise bill to increase pay in the United States armed services was passed yesterday by the House of Representatives and sent to the Senate. Individual raises in the bill would range from about three per cent for the next to lowest rank up to approximately 37 per cent for generals and admirals and two high non-commissioned grades.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD.—(AP)—Charles Laughton lumbered into a room marked "tumor board" and faced a dozen veterans, at least one of whom has a few weeks to live.

"I guess I came to the right place with this tumor," he smiled, holding his massive belly.

The men and women laughed and he introduced himself to each of them. To one wheel-chaired woman named Jenny he recited the poem, "Jenny Kissed Me," and then kissed her. This was the fare that launched the Mutiny on the Bounty.

Laughton took a book from under his arm and read a scene from "Midsummer Night's Dream."

"Did you know Shakespeare was less than 30 years old when he wrote this?" he asked.

PATIENTS PARTICIPATE

He did another scene from the play with one of the women patients. Then he had a six-foot former flier enact Lady Macbeth to his Macbeth.

For a finish, the actor recited two scenes from "Julius Caesar." For 25 minutes the hospital rang with the words of Brutus, Cassius, Marc Antony and other Roman citizens.

As one of the veterans filed out of the room, he commented to a buddy: "That's the first time Shakespeare made any sense to me."

Laughton has long made a practice of reading the Bard and the Bible to veterans, but this was the first time he allowed a member of the press along. A naturally shy person, he sighed afterwards. "I suppose after doing this sort of thing for years, I'm not afraid of anybody."

As we drove away from the hospital, I asked him when he would do some Shakespeare for the public. (He conducts a Shakespeare class for young Hollywood players.)

LACK UNDERSTANDING

"Lawrence Langner of the Theatre Guild asked me that a few weeks ago," he answered. "I told him I wouldn't put on any Shakespeare until I was sure it would be understood.

"All the Shakespeare I have seen has bored me stiff because I haven't understood it. I doubt if even a university professor could.

"The drama and the language is all there; all that is needed is better acting."

Laughton explained there was a break in the Shakespeare tradition. "First the Puritans banned plays," he said, "and then in the era of Charles II the public was interested only in bawdy farces. There was a lapse of 100 years before Shakespeare was played again.

"That's why we have to discover him all over again."

Maclean Blasts Bulletin Stand

Milner Support by Paper Said Lacking in Reason

A prominent city barrister blasted the Edmonton Bulletin last night for its stand on a candidate for Edmonton West.

Neil D. Maclean, KC, made the verbal attack before a Liberal rally at Calder Community Hall.

Main point of the outburst was directed against editorials appearing in the Bulletin Friday and Saturday, June 13 and 14, supporting Progressive Conservative Ray Milner for Edmonton West.

Mr. Maclean read the two editorials to the small turnout, saying "at last Edmonton has two newspapers that express definite opinions instead of keeping down the middle lane."

LIKE A MIRROR

"It has become increasingly evident," he added, "that Ray Milner is the man behind the Bulletin. When Milner reads the Bulletin, it's like looking into a mirror.

"The Bulletin, according to its editorials, has always been a Liberal paper. This reasoning doesn't stand up when Milner is running under a Progressive Conservative banner.

"He (Milner) acquired most of his political background from R. B. Bennett. Both men think alike, and both are to be defeated by a powerful Liberal machine.

"I would class them both as political tycoons," Mr. Maclean concluded.

PRUDHAM APPLAUDED

The small turnout applauded heavily Mr. Maclean's introduction of George Prudham, Liberal candidate for Edmonton West.

Stressing the need of "a cleanup of the housing problem," Mr. Prudham said he would wage a campaign against the "deplorable housing situation that now exists in Edmonton."

"National Housing Act is the best legislation passed," he told the meeting. "Lack of materials is only reason the project wasn't a complete success. An increase in government loans would be a move in the right direction. I intend to get that loan."

PROVINCE BLAMED

The Liberal candidate said provincial government had failed to do anything about slum conditions now existing in certain parts of the city.

Twice president of National House Builders' Association, Mr. Prudham pointed out that he had taken provincial government officials through these slums hoping action would follow.

"Nothing happened," he charged. "But as Edmonton West candidate in Ottawa I will take action that will bring these people decent shelter."

He cited a case where several families were forced to use one shower, and walk "quite a distance" for drinking water.

LIBERALS CONFIDENT

Proposed Evergreen highway has been promised to run through Edmonton by the Liberal party.

Liberals expressed confidence for the coming election, adding they should have a two to one majority.

Senator Blais, addressing the meeting in French, and E. B. Wilson were guest speakers.

The right to use a coat of arms in England is inherited and this right, like the use of a family name, cannot be withheld or revoked.

"OH, I DON'T believe it!" says Doug Badger, Saskatchewan, shocked at story just told by Dick Jervis, Hudson's Bay. 78 Coyotes Bagged In Aerial Hunt

Alberta has 78 fewer coyotes today as a result of a 19-day air warfare conducted against them by government-hired flying hunter.

Officials of the department of lands and forest employed LaRue Smith, Delbourne gunsmith, to hunt coyotes in open areas of Central Alberta, shooting them from a plane piloted by Victor McCormick.

The huntsman killed 51 coyotes in the Castor, Three hills and Elnora districts during the first 10 days of the experiments.

Colorful Postal Tale Told in One Sentence

Briefest life story was told in a flash by postmaster F. Rodgers Lougheed, attending the Alberta Postmasters' convention at the Macdonald hotel.

Of his postal career he said:

"I was baptised in the spring of 1919, confirmed as postmaster in August the same year, have been married to the post office ever since and hope to be divorced shortly with sufficient allimony to live happily ever after."

Unlike those who have been attending conventions for years, Mr. Rodgers, postmaster for 30 years, is attending his first.

"Just couldn't get away," he explained. "All tied up all the time. Married to the job."

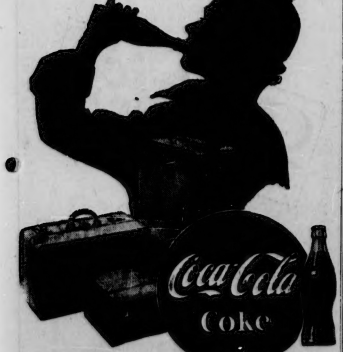

A bit dubious about conventions, he thought them dull affairs and left his wife at home. On his arrival he was so pleasantly surprised by the geniality he promptly wired his wife to come at once. She did and both are enjoying their first convention.

What prompted him to come finally, he said, was the great number of changes that have taken place recently in the postal profession.

More Direct City-Coast Link Sought

Edmonton Chamber of Commerce officials are hopeful of favorable action on their request for a more direct air route between Edmonton and Vancouver by Trans-Canada Air Lines.

The Chamber has sought assistance TCA Vice-President of Traffic A. C. McKim to petition the dominion department of transport to have radio range stations built on a direct line between Edmonton and Vancouver.

Such aerial navigational aids would eliminate necessity of TCA transcontinental flights now routed through Edmonton, from flying south to Cowley, Alta., to pick up radio beams along the southern flight route to the coast.

Executive-Manager Don McKay of the Chamber of Commerce said today the trade body is chiefly concerned over lowered fares for air travel to the coast if the distance is shortened by direct route.

So far no reply has been received from either TCA or DOT officials on the Chamber request.

Stay Of Execution Denied Murderer

MONTREAL, June 16.—(CP)—An attempt to stay the execution of Douglas Perreault, under sentence to be hanged Friday, was denied yesterday by Mr. Justice Wilfrid Lazure.

Defence counsel sought a stay until Oct. 28, maintaining that Perreault, convicted with two others in the slaying of two policemen, is an essential witness in trials of persons charged with conspiring to aid Perreault in an unsuccessful jail break.

MAIL EARLY TANGLES LEFT GLADLY BEHIND

Men to whom "parcel post," "air lift," and "please mail early" are household words forgot their routine problems last night in an evening "at home."

Occasion was the program of entertainment supplied by Edmonton district postmasters, and district office in the conference hall donated by the Edmonton Bulletin.

It was a program for almost all nationalities represented. Among those taking part were Frank Stone with Welsh songs; Clem Schroeter, who sang Bluebird of Happiness; Ray Perraton, On The Road To Mandalay and Louis Alexandre who sang the all-time favorite Irish Eyes Are Smiling.

Variety was lent to the program with piano solos by Chas. Ell and imitations by Bill Jowett.

Don Taylor, president of Alberta Postmasters' Association, was master of ceremonies.

Cubs Want 'Outlaw' 'Oom Paul' Peterson

Ducey Sticks by Landis Code Despite Eskimos' 8-7 Reverse

'Oom Paul' Peterson, righthander from Rocky Mountain House who has been pitching with Billings in the Pioneer league, is expected to join Les Edwards' Cubs of the Big Four loop before the day is out.

And not to be outdone by their local rivals (the word takes on added significance after a series of near wild-and-woolly incidents as Cubs edged Esks 8-7 at Renfrew Park last night) manager Ralph Morgan likewise is counting on signing Jim Forsyth, pitcher-infielder released last week-end as manager of Calgary Buffaloes.

Esks are not interested in Peterson, a strongboy who reportedly refused to join the Bisbee-Douglas club of the Arizona-Texas loop upon being optioned there by Billings a few days ago. As a result he has been placed on organized baseball's suspended list.

"We couldn't entertain signing him under the circumstances," John Ducey, general manager of Esks, stated last night. (At this precise moment it's understood the late Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, first commissioner of baseball, turned over in his grave in great relief).

PLAY NO FAVORITES

Apparently the Cub management plays no favorites. Just so Peterson can win for them, that's all that matters.

And speaking of winning, this is what Clarence Mellbye, the righthander out of McMinnville, Oregon, failed to do against Cubs last night.

Manager Morgan's choice to get Eskimos 'even' for the 22-7 thumping they had absorbed from the Motormen 24 hours earlier, Mellbye went along in great style—except for one inning, the fifth.

In that frame the league leaders struck for six runs, all coming after two were out.

To touch off the Cub rally Cliff Johnston, Esk rightfielder, failed to hold a long drive from the bat of Doug Stevenson and the ball rolled free, the Cub catcher pulling up at third.

Obviously unsettled by the Johnson antics Mellbye proceeded to issue a base-on-balls to his mound rival, Vern Callihan, a rapidly improving hurler but an acknowledged soft touch at the plate. This was bad—from the Esk standpoint.

Then in quick succession Robert Shaw tripled (the drive, lofted into the hole in right centre, also was played poorly), 'Slim' Clovinski walked, Reg Clarkson singled and to top it off Doug Stewart homered over the right field wall. Six Cub runs were in.

Mellbye struck out Ryan to retire the side—but had been a 3-2 game in favor of Esks now read Cubs 8, Esks 3 on the scoreboard.

To give them credit Esks rallied in game fashion in the ninth, getting to Callihan for four runs after Jerry Seaman, coming off the bench in a pinch-hitting role with one away, sparked the uprising by smacking a one-bagger to centre.

Big knock of the uprising was Ted Tappe's three run tripie to right field for his fifth hit of the game in as many tries. Ed Morris then, filed to centre, Tappe counting after the catch to make it 8-7. However Ross Kortgard popped to Clarkson for the third out and Esks had had the treatment for the second night in a row.

Boston Deals Masi to Bucs

PITTSBURGH, June 16—(AP)—In a last-minute exchange of players to beat the midnight trading deadline, Pittsburgh Pirates last night obtained catcher Phil Masi from Boston Braves in exchange for outfielder Ed Sauer and an unannounced sum of cash.

General manager Roy Hamey of the Pirates announced the deal shortly before midnight and continued:

"We had to have immediate help in catching since Eddie FitzGerald and Clyde McCullough are out indefinite with injuries. Masi will catch in tonight's game with the Braves."

The deal climaxed a day in which the Pirates purchased Sauer from the St. Louis Cardinals for cash and a minor league player to be delivered at a later date.

Joe Walcott 'In the Pink'

MOMENCE, Ill., June 16—(UP)—Jersey Joe Walcott reached fighting weight yesterday for his heavyweight title bout with Ezzard Charles next Wednesday.

Walcott registered 194 pounds and trainers Joey Allen and Dan Florio said that would be his weight for the championship scrap in Chicago.

Walcott brought his total practice rounds to 105 by sparring four rounds with Richard Haga, Chicago heavyweight and Tommy Merrill, Camden, N.J., light heavyweight.

Mason's Attention Turns to Horses

Boxing promoter Gene Mason has turned his attention to horse racing for the summer. It was learned yesterday that Mason will leave for Winnipeg tonight to attend the 14-day race meeting which commences there Saturday.

Experienced in the turf game, Mason will act as an agent for Jockey Emil Roy, the prairie rider who has been enjoying considerable success on Toronto tracks this season.

NBC to Televize Heavyweight Bout

NEW YORK, June 16—(AP)—The National Boxing association's June 22 heavyweight championship fight between Jersey Joe Walcott and Ezzard Charles will be televised by the National Broadcasting company over an inter-connected network, but Chicago will be "blacked out" of the pictures.

An NBC spokesman said last night the move was made at the request of the promoters, the International Boxing club, "in order to insure maximum attendance at the fight."

Mortons Wallop Walkies at 'Grove

Ross McBeth's Mortons scored a decisive 10-0 win over Walk-Rites when the two teams from the Senior Ladies' Fastball loop clashed yesterday at the annual Spruce Grove sports day.

A big five-run second inning, featured by first basegal Merrie Mercer, early turned the tide in favor of Mortons.

Pauline Spudolaki, on the mound for the winners, turned in a neat four-hit job to gain an easy pitching triumph at the expense of Ruth Hayes.

NEIL COLVILLE BACK FOR LONG HOLIDAY

Neil Colville, ace of coach Dan Carrigan's EAC squad that went to the Memorial cup finals in the spring of 1934, is back in the city to enjoy a two or three month holiday with his parents.

Colville, who later carved out a fine career in the National Hockey league with New York Rangers, wound up last season coaching the Ranger farm club at New Haven in the American loop.

These times he farms in the off season near Winnipeg. However with the crop in and things running smoothly he decided to turn his back on things rustic in favor of a visit with his folks.

Taking in ball games and playing golf likely will occupy most of his time while hereabouts.

Peace, It's Wonderful As Esks, Cubs Tangle

War has been declared. Or so it seemed at Renfrew Park last night as Cubs edged Esks 8-7 for their second win in 24 hours over last year's kingpins.

Even before the first ball was thrown by Vern Callihan, Cub righthander, general manager John Ducey of Esks and manager Les Edwards, Cubs, took to jawing away at each other.

Ducey, seated in the press-box, thought that Edwards was slow about getting the Cub line-up to the umpires and the scorers. Ralph Morgan, Esk strawboss, already had attended to this detail.

So Ducey took great pains to 'call' Edwards.

"Hurry up with that blankety-blank line-up o' yours," he bellowed at Edwards. Latter came back with: "Ah, why don't you get up in the stands where an owner should be. First league I ever was in where an owner sat in the press box and tried t'run the show."

They had it hot and heavy for a time.

Then, almost as soon as the game got underway, Edwards and Ed Morris, Esk second baseman on this occasion (Bill Price is out with a bad back) took to spitting and fuming at each other like a pair of back-fence cats.

This went on all through the piece, with Morris, who went hitless in five trips while leaving a half dozen baserunners stranded, providing Edwards with much reason for caustic comment.

As the seventh inning ran its course Clarence Mellbye, on the mound for the Esks, threw two or three close ones at Cub outfielder 'Slim' Clovinski and cries of 'beat ball 'came out of the Cub dugout.

Clovinski (incidentally he's hitting less than .100 which makes one wonder why Mellbye would be 'throwing at him', as Cubs claimed) lipped the Esk righthander as he ambled to first. Mellbye dashed over to the bag to stick his face close to that of Clovinski while they threatened back and forth, but umpire Riley Mullen stepped between the pair and no blows were struck.

And so it went, with Ted Tappe's Esk firstsacker sticking to business and winding up five-for-five, to say nothing of a great one-handed catch of Clarkson's foul into the first base runway in the third inning.

Local Golf Fan Takes Poke At Municipal Course Setup

Mr. Jim McCurdy,
The Bulletin
Dear Sir:

Your letter to golf professionals in Edmonton is undoubtedly a commendable effort on behalf of our younger golfers.

You could also add the information that most of the top-notch golfers raised in Edmonton, learned to play and were brought along on the Municipal Golf course. Who were they? Why, you must remember Don Gowan, Jim Mountifield, Harry Shaw, Harvey Day, the Martell brothers, Vern Mohs and Buddy Loftus.

And don't forget May Mountifield—also Mrs. Roy Horne, who won the Canadian Ladies' closed championship in 1936.

BERT GEE TO FORE

These players were all coached by Bert Gee. Maybe Bert HAS been right up in the front row with the coast pros?

There is a very good reason why the scores in the Junior Golf championship this year were higher than usual. Buddy Loftus, who was in fine form last year, was able to play as much golf as he desired, and probably played thirty-six holes most days, besides being able to practice when the course was clear.

But since Bert Gee no longer is in charge, and the Parks Department has gone all out to see how much money can be made, instead of how much service can be given, as in the past (despite the fact that the Golf Course last year had a net profit of over $4,000), Edmonton's youth are not getting the same chance as they did in former years.

A season ticket holder now is allowed to play 18 holes per day only on his ticket. On rare occasions when the course is deserted, he may be allowed to play a few extra holes. Practising is forbidden anywhere on the course.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

If these conditions are permitted to continue, you will be safe in making the statement, that no more of Edmonton's top golfers will be raised on the Municipal course. Any professional golfer will tell you to practice, if you wish to improve your game, and any good golfer will tell you that in his or her youth, there were any number of days that two full rounds were played.

Our city boasts a Recreation Commission. If the battle against juvenile delinquency is to be helped as you suggest, it is high time that this same Recreation Commission was asked to take over the administration of the Municipal Course, so that it can serve the

Lethbridge Puck Aces Ink Calgary Forms

Calgary Stampeders of the Western Canada Hockey league yesterday reached down into the pie made by the withdrawal of Lethbridge Maple Leafs and came out with what could well be the richest plums.

MORT COOPER
... Moose Jaw hurler.

Stampeder management came up with Roy Heximer and Stan Maxwell, high-scoring forwards on the fourth-place Leafs, and defenceman Jack Taggart.

BURKE SIGNS, TOO

As well, they announced the signing of Marty Burke to manage the club next season. Burke handled Stamps through the latter part of last season and into the playoffs when illness forced Jack Arbour to the sidelines.

Four members of the Calgary Buffaloes, western Canada junior finalists, also were taken into the fold. Al Purvis, now a pitcher with Edmonton Cubs, Sid Finney, Gunnar Carlson and John Michaluk, brother of Art Michaiuk, hard-rocking defenceman who played for Stamps from 1945 to 1948, will line up with Stamps.

The signing of Maxwell and Heximer will bolster a Calgary attack that lacked 'vinegar' at times through last season.

Heximer wound up with 28 goals and 24 assists for 52 points to lead the Leafs in the point parade. Maxwell was not too far behind, his 27 goals and 16 assists giving him 43 points.

Taggart, although he picked up but 15 points, was a bulwark on defence and is rated one of the top rear-guards in the league.

It has variously been reported in recent weeks that all three Lethbridge stars were likely to sign with Frank Currie's Flyers next season. Currie made one trip to Lethbridge several weeks ago to talk to the trio and other liberated Leafs.

At an early hour this morning the Flyer mentor was unavailable for comment.

Ex-Cardinal Star to Join Moose Jaw Club

MOOSE JAW, June 16—(CP)—Big Mort Cooper, one of the top pitchers in the National league a few years ago, will join the second-place Moose Jaw entry in the Southern Saskatchewan Senior Baseball league later this month, club officials announced yesterday.

They said a deal had been completed for the services of the former St. Louis Cardinal ace through J. T. Gallagher, vice-president and manager of the Chicago Cubs.

Cooper, whose big-time career was shortened by an arm ailment, tried an unsuccessful comeback with the Cubs this season.

Philly Mates Shocked By Waitkus Shooting

CHICAGO, June 16—(AP)—No one in the world of sports was more shocked by the shooting and wounding of Eddie Waitkus in the Edgewater Beach hotel yesterday than his Philadelphia Phillies team-mates.

Ever since the popular Waitkus came to the Phils his defensive play and his timely, consistent hitting have established him in the minds of the players, as well as officials of the club, as the best first-baseman in the National league.

"What a break against us!" exclaimed manager Eddie Sawyer.

"We've got Dick Sisler to take Eddie's place, and Dick can hit the ball out of the park. But Waitkus has everything.

"I've not seen the kind of plays he made around first base since Joe Kuhel and Jim Bottomley played. Everyone could see his actual physical plays but no one knows how he encouraged youngsters."

"He is one of the sweetest guys I ever knew," said big Bill Nicholson, Eddie's room-mate since the season opened. Nicholson and Waitkus came to the Phils from Chicago Cubs.

"I never got such a shock in my life," Nicholson added. I've been in baseball 15 years and never roomed with a finer guy."

Around the infield, Eddie Miller, Gran Hamner, Willie Jones and Ralph Caballero lauded Waitkus' defensive acrobatics. Jones, especially, has let fly with a number of erratic throws, but only twice this year have his wild heaves eluded the agile first-sacker.

"I don't know how many times I apologized and thanked him," said Jones. "Just as soon as a wild throw left my hand I knew he was in for trouble. But somehow he got it."

About Luscious Luke Easter

It was before the ball game last night and Charles (Chuck) Henderson, onetime manager of the Eskimos, was the centre of a conversational group.

"Yeah," he was saying. "I'm heading down the coast shortly for a holiday. Wanta get a look at some ball . . . see that Luke Easter with San Diego and Max West and one or two other Coast leaguers I hear are burning things up.

"They say the fans go out to watch big Easter (ed. note: Easter is a 6'4" Negro first-base sensation with San Diego) in hitting practice same as they used to for 'Babe' Ruth. 'N'fact a friend wrote that Easter and West are just as good a pair to watch in batting practice before the game as Ruth ani Lou Gehrig were.

"Why between them those two guys already have something like 45 homers."

Henderson, generally rated the slickest fielding first-sacker ever to play in these parts, paused just long enough to greet another early comer. Then he was away again.

"I expect to see games in Portland, Seattle and San Francisco . . . that is if my wife doesn't put her foot down on too much baseball. She doesn't know I'm planning to see as much as I can of that big Luscious Easter."

About 'That Cub Spirit'

Then he turned his thoughts to the game of the moment and the pennant chances of the Cubs and his old club, the Eskimos.

"I had quite an argument today with Henry Roche" he got underway again." He thinks Esks still have what it takes to handle the Cubs. But I dunno.

"Henry went right down the line with me . . . position for position. Sounded pretty convincing, too. But you can't always tell by that position stuff.

"For one thing there's the Cub spirit. They've got it in a big way. Take Des O'Connor, for instance. Last night he was robbed of at least two base-hits. And did he get down over it? Not a bit.

"Why a couple o' plays later Doug Stevenson came up with a hit and there was O'Connor yelling 'atta boy, Doug' for all he was worth. They're the same all the way through.

"It's a great thing to have . . . that old college try . . . that harmony . . . that one-for-all, all-for-one stuff.

"Yuh can't buy it, either."

About Ted Tappe—And Why Not?

Another deep breath. Then Henderson went on.

"Tell yuh one thing, though. This kid Ted Tappe with Esks is one sweet looking first baseman. Take that throw of Karlson's he scooped outa the dirt last night.

"If da been stretching as far as I could, tryin' to trap it. But he just stuck that big mitt out there, kept a hold o' the bag and played the hop to perfection. Course he mighta just been lucky. That's the kind of play where you do or you don't. If a guy misses the first time it's generally too bad.

"Saw him make an even better play later on a throw to his right. Kelly (base-umpire Jim Kelly) called the runner safe but he blew one there. Just wasn't expectin' the kid to make the catch.

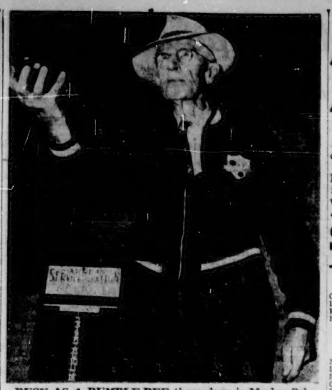

"Tappe's loose and easy. Got a good arm. Looks like he'll hit, too. So what else is there to this game?"

Just then the other members of the group began to head for their seats. Down in the press box a certain disc jockey (hiya Gordon Williamson) had turned on "Take Me Out to the Ball Game' as a public address offering. The Cubs were sprinting to their positions to get the game underway.

Henderson, too, turned to go.

"Sure can't wait to get a look at that Easter character. Say, what a hitter he must be."

And he was gone.

BUSY AS A BUMBLE-BEE these days is Morley Seller, tournament secretary of the City of Edmonton Lawn Bowling association. The group plans a mixed competition Saturday night and entries are pouring in.

Raw Rookies Steal Show From Big League Veterans

NEW YORK, June 16—(CP)—A couple of raw rookies stole the spotlight from their veteran team mates in yesterday's baseball action.

The pair—Dino Restelli of Pittsburgh Pirates and Ray Boone of Cleveland Indians—each smacked out two homers in leading their clubs to victory. For both the round-trippers were their first in the major leagues.

Boone currently is playing shortstop for the world-champion Cleveland Indians of the American league, replacing manager Lou Boudreau. Boudreau played first base as the Indians were trampling Boston's Red Sox, 8-5.

Restelli joined the National league Pirates Tuesday night from San Francisco of the Pacific Coast league. His two homers batted in four runs for the Pirates in their 8-7 victory over the Boston Braves. Aged Rip Sewell pitched the final inning for the Pirates and was given credit for his fourth win of the year as against no defeats.

CARDS GET EVEN

In St. Louis, the Cardinals evened up their key National league series with the Brooklyn Dodgers at a game apiece by trimming them 9-5. Nippy Jones was a one-man show for the Cards, knocking out a homer, two singles and a double and batting in six runs. The lose snapped the Dodgers' winning streak at eight games, but left the Dodgers two games atop the pack.

Meanwhile the Philadelphia Phillies got two five-hit performances out of two veteran pitchers in sweeping a twin bill from the Chicago Cubs, 4-1 and 3-0. Ken Heintzelman won his seventh victory in the opener and Hank Borowy his sixth in the nightcap, although he needed help from Robin Roberts in the ninth. Dick Sisler replaced Eddie Waitkus at first base for the Phils and got three hits in the two games.

HOT HOME STREAK

In the American league, the New York Yankees maintained their hot home streak, clubbing out a 9-4 victory over the Chicago White Sox. It was the Yanks' 17th triumph in 20 contests at Yankee Stadium this year. Catcher Yogi Berra ran his consecutive hitting streak to 17 games with a three-run homer in the fifth inning in helping Allie Reynolds to his seventh win against one loss.

Rae Scarborough pitched a brilliant two-hitter against the St. Louis Browns at Washington Senators were pounded Bill Kennedy and Karl Drews for 15 hits and a 9-0 victory. Scarborough struck out seven and walked one in posting his sixth victory.

Toronto's Dick Fowler recorded his fourth straight pitching victory in hurling Philadelphia Athletics to a 2-1 win over Detroit Tigers in the Motor City. Eddie Joost's 14th home run of the year gave the A's their margin of victory.

Coast Golfer Sees CPGA Crackup

VANCOUVER, June 16—(CP)—A major crackup in the Canadian Professional Golf association was forecast last night by Jock McKinnon, president of the British Columbia section of the CPGA.

McKinnon heads a force of dissatisfied British Columbia pros who he says likely will break away from the parent golf organization and seek membership in the American professional golf association, Pacific northwest branch.

TO DECIDE TONIGHT

McKinnon said B.C. pros would meet tonight and that they likely would decide to take revolt action.

The dissatisfaction among the pros—which extends to Winnipeg—resulted from what McKinnon terms a "deliberate doublecross" from the CPGA, in arranging the dates of Canada's two top golf tournaments, the Canadian Open and the CPGA open.

Instead of arranging the two tourneys to follow each other in the same city—as arranged at a CPGA meeting here last year—the CPGA has scheduled the Canadian Open for Toronto next week and the CPGA event for the Seigniory club, near Ottawa Sept. 8 and 9.

None of the B.C. pros plans to play in either tourney.

From Edmonton's Highlands club, Henry Martell said yesterday he will forego the tourneys, as did Pat Fletcher in Regina, and Les Beaven in Winnipeg.

The western pros feel they are being discriminated against and balk at the prospect of paying for two trips east. Instead they are boycotting both tourneys.

LEAVE WITH REGRET

As for the proposed break from the CPGA, McKinnon says: "We'll leave with a lot of regret. But their action leaves us no option. There's no sense in belonging to the thing if they continue to ride over us.

"Why should we go on paying dues and get nothing out of it? This incident is pretty well the last straw."

And along with all this came a hint from Calgary that western Canada's women golfers might secede from the Canadian Ladies' Golf Union.

Mrs. Tina Oughton, prominent Calgary woman golfer, said the break had been under consideration for the last two years.

"There is a strong feeling among western women golfers that the CLGU has little interest in the west beyond the collection of club fees," Mrs. Oughton said.

KLEIN SIGNS CARD CONTRACT

ST. LOUIS, June 16—(AP)—Infielder Lou Klein is the first St. Louis Cardinal who jumped to the Mexican league to sign a new contract, it was announced last night.

Fred M. Saigh, president of the Redbirds, said Klein signed the contract in the club's office last evening.

Saigh said Klein signed for the same salary he had when he went to Mexico in 1946—$6,500.

Dodgers Announce Summer Camp Dates

BROOKLYN, N.Y., June 16 — (CP)—Brooklyn Dodgers of the National league yesterday announced plans for 19 summer training camps, five of them in Canada.

Don Simon Silences Booming S.S. Bats

Youthful Don Simon stilled the thunder of the usually potent South Side bats last night and went on to lead his new Maple Leaf mates to an 11-1 victory over the cross river crew, who were dropping their first game of the season, at Clarke Stadium.

The 17-year-old blond, who just transferred to Leafs from the CNR nine last Monday, limited the South Siders to three hits over the nine-inning route and walked three while striking out eight.

He was only in trouble once, in the first inning, when the losers came up with their only run putting together one hit and two errors by Leaf third-sacker Pete Diakur.

IN HOT WATER

Leafs, on the other hand, had two South Side hurlers in hot water all night. Don Crough started and stayed around through a three-run outburst in the first inning, survived a one-run uprising in the second frame before collapsing in the fourth frame as Leafs tallied four times. He walked off the hill and was replaced by Hal Foras, who scraped through with three runs against him the rest of the way.

Zeke Waluk and Nick Mandryk packed the big bats where Leafs were concerned, each batting in three runs. Waluk hit safely his first three times up while Mandryk blasted out a single and a two-run homer, the round-tripper coming in the sixth inning.

Ray Barry, Leafs, did things in pairs, singling twice, scoring twice and knocking home two runs.

Shortage of Name Golfers in Open

TORONTO, June 16 — (CP) — Unless many American "name" golfers get cracking on entry forms, the 40th Canadian Open golf championship at Toronto St. George's club June 22-25 will lose much of its glamor of former years. There's a big entry list so far — 177 — but it doesn't show a Locke, Snead or Middlecoff in the lot.

BOBBY LOCKE
... To pass up open.

"Final" closing date for entries was set at June 13 but the list will be kept open until a day before the tee-off in the hope that Slammin' Sam, three-times Open winner and always a favorite with Canadians, or Cary Middlecoff, the Memphis dentist who won the 49th U.S. Open at Chicago last week, will put their signatures on entry blanks.

LOCKE TO SIT OUT

The biggest setback to officials for the 72-hole medal play was announcement that South Africa's Bobby Locke, who won the Open in 1947 and a crowd pleaser wherever he goes, won't be around for the tee-off. Bobby figured it would be better to do some serious training for the British Open starting July 4.

Apart from the absence of the big "names", the Open has been boycotted by western Canada pros who are hepped up over the fact the Canadian Professional Golfers' association has not arranged its annual tournament immediately before or after the Open. The CPGA championship will be played in August over the Seigniory club, near Ottawa, and the western pros take the stand they can't afford to make two separate trips east.

The entry list released yesterday by the Royal Canadian Golf association, showed 35 amateurs primed to compete in the Open, to the winner of which goes the Seagram Gold cup. Competing professionals also will shoot for $10,000 in prize money. The majority of the amateurs are from Canada.

CONGDON RETURNS

List includes 38-year-old Charlie (Chuck) Congdon of Tacoma, Wash., who won last year while playing in his first Canadian Open.

Dick Metz of Virginia Beach, Va., who tied for second place with Vic Ghezzi of Englewood, N.J., will compete although Ghezzi's entry form has not been received.

Name players in the hunt include: Johnny Palmer of Badin, N.C., who gained the third spot in the U.S. Masters' tournament in April this year, and Joe Kirkwood, Jr., winner of the sixth annual Inquirer invitation tournament at Philadelphia last month.

Others are George Fazio, Conshohocken, Pa., 1946 Open champion; Lawson Little, Cleveland, Ohio, 1936 Open champion; Clayton Heafner, Charlotte, N.C.; Dutch Harrison, Little Rock, Ark., Claude Harmon, Mamaroneck, N.Y.; Ky Laffoon, Chicago and Gene Sarazen, Germantown, N.Y.

CUT ADRIFT by Eskimos of the Big Four Baseball league last night was Alex Omelus (above). He was released to make room for Dick Lowe and Jim Forsyth, expected to join Esks, as the clubs cut their rosters to meet the 18-man limit. Lowe, a former Maple Leaf junior, spent two years tossing balls in Class C loops in the U.S.

Downpour Causes Fight Problems

Cerdan–LaMotta Gate Estimate Shrinks; Weight Headache Arises

DETROIT, June 16 — (AP) — Rain forced a 24-hour postponement of last night's scheduled middleweight title bout between champion Marcel Cerdan and Jake LaMotta, the persistent challenger from New York's Bronx. The 15-round bout has been rescheduled for Briggs Stadium tonight.

Showers that brought relief to a sweltering city began to fall while the two fighters were being weighed in at Olympia Stadium. They continued all afternoon. Finally the promoters gave in and announced the delay.

GATE SHRINKS

Early estimates of a $300,000 gate now have shrunk to $200,000 tops and about 18,000 fans. Much depends on the gate sale of the cheaper tickets. There will be no radio or television broadcasts.

LaMotta, finally getting a title shot after years of being called "the fellow the champs duck" just made the weight at 159½. Cerdan came in easily at 158 pounds, half a pound less than his weight last September when he won the crown by clubbing Tony Zale into submission.

Both were pronounced in "good condition" by Dr. Joseph Cahalan, the commission doctor.

The weight problem becomes increasingly important with the postponement.

Cerdan's handlers held out for another weigh-in today on the grounds that Marcel "will be fighting a light heavyweight" in another 24 hours.

LaMotta's manager, brother Joey LaMotta, insisted on no second weigh-in.

"Jake had trouble enough making the weight yesterday," said Joey. "If we have to dry out again, it will take a lot of his strength away."

After a three-hour closed session in the steaming office of the boxing commission, it was ruled that there shall be no new weigh-in today, in accordance with NBA rules. If it is put off for a second time, both boys will have to make 160 pounds again.

The odds still quoted Cerdan as a 3-to-8 favorite. They may go down to 3 to 7 by ring time.

Epic, three-year-old brown colt owned by E. P. Taylor of Toronto, led for the first seven furlongs but faded in the stretch.

Winner was Colonel Mike, owned by Eugene Jacobs.

Baseball Facing Legal Jam

WASHINGTON, June 16—(UP)—If Attorney General Tom Clark gives the green light the Justice Department may file an anti-trust suit against organized baseball, it was disclosed yesterday.

Department officials emphasized, however, that the suit under consideration would concern itself only with baseball's business connections with radio and television. It would not attack the so-called "reserve clause" in which players are automatically bound to the parent club at the expiration of their contracts.

It was said that the final decision on whether or not to file the suit was up to Clark and his top advisers.

Several years ago the Supreme Court ruled baseball was not engaged in interstate commerce and therefore not subject to the federal anti-trust acts. However, the Justice Department has been investigating for months to see whether baseball's new connections with radio and television have brought it at least technically into interstate commerce.

Argument has been considered that radio and television have caused baseball games to be carried across state boundaries and thus made it part of interstate commerce.

Moose Wins, Loses In Twin Bill

Moose fastballers turned ironmen last night but the best they could do in a Senior Men's Fastball league double-header, playing a different team each game, was gain a split.

Precision Machine, top dogs in the eight team circuit, edged them 5-3 in the first game of the evening as Bill Anyschuk of the machinists threw a five-hitter at them. Stan Ahlstrom, on the Moose mound, gave up but two hits but had his good work undone by teammates errors. A three-run fifth inning settled the issue.

It was a different story in the nightcap as the Moose jumped on Norwood Legion tosser Andy Bartlaga for five runs in the first inning and coasted the rest of the way to a 10-5 victory.

Jack Cossey kept the Norwood attack under wraps most of the way as he tossed a neat four-hitter at the Legionmen.

RCAF Crew Chalks Up Initial Soccer Win

A greatly-improved RCAF eleven knocked off Oliver 2-1 in a Senior Soccer league tilt at Clarke Stadium. It was the first victory of the year for the RCAF team.

The loss broke a two-game Oliver winning streak which had brought them their only triumphs of the year.

SHAW PULLS BONER

The teams battled through a scoreless first half and Oliver might have gained a draw but for misjudgment on the part of the usually sterling Bob Shaw in the Oliver goal.

T. Gamett beat Shaw at the 10-minute mark of the second half to give the air force team a short-lived 1-0 lead. Rickey Richardson pulled the green-clad Oliver crew back to even footing two and half minutes later when he finished a sweet play with Dave McAra.

That set the stage for Shaw's misplay which allowed T. Lewis of the RCAF to score the winning goal.

It was announced after the game that the draw for the first round of the Dominion Football association competitions would be made Saturday night immediately after the North Side Legion-Oliver contest. Representatives of all teams are asked to be on hand.

BENTLEY'S NAG SHAGS PLACE MONEY IN EAST

TORONTO, June 16—(CP)—Hard - working Valdina Herman ran a close second in the featured sixth race at Thorncliffe Park yesterday, his first race in the blue-and-white of the NHL Toronto Maple Leafs.

Owned by Max Bentley, Maple Leaf centre, the three-year-old was unable to overtake Samanad who won the $1,400 allowance feature. Well liked, Valdina Herman paid $3.15 to place and $2.15 to show.

The horse was given to Bentley by Charlie Hemstead of Toronto after Max scored an important goal in an NHL game last winter.

Top Canadian Horseman Dies

TORONTO, June 16 — One of Canada's outstanding horsemen, Harry Giddings, died yesterday following a heart attack. To stable hands and race-horse owners alike it felt like a personal loss.

The heavy set, jovial trackman, who got into the racing game almost by accident, saddled more King's Plate winners (eight) than any other man in the history of the blue-ribbon event of Canadian racing. But more than that, he was a true horseman.

About 20,000,000 bushels of potatoes were used by the American potato chip industry last season.

Prudhams Top Co-op by 19-16

Prudhams went wild to score seven big runs in the first inning and then held on to take a 19-16 victory over Alberta Co-op in a South Side Intermediate 'A' Men's Fastball tussle played last night.

Co-op out-hit the victors 15-10, but Adshead and Jackson, Co-op hurlers, all but handed Prudhams the game on a platter, giving up 12 free passes.

Hadded smacked the long ball of the night, a homer for Co-op in the fifth.

Cincinnati, Chicago Trade Winds Blow

CINCINNATI, June 16—(AP)—Cincinnati Reds last night traded outfielders Hank Sauer and Frankie Baumholtz to Chicago Cubs for outfielders Harry Walker and Harry (Peanuts) Lowrey.

President Warren C. Giles announced the deal less than four hours before the midnight deadline for trading players in the major leagues. He said it was a straight trade with no cash involved.

Deal was made after a day-long conference of Reds officials in which they made numerous telephone calls in an effort to arrange a deal that might boost the slumping Redlegs.

Westmount Mauls Beverly 20-0

Westmount midgets stormed all over Beverly at Diamond Park last night to chalk up a lopsided 20-0 victory. The Westmount power boomed across the park as the west enders scored five runs in each of the first four innings.

And to make matters completely miserable for the Beverly crew they weren't able to hit. Westmount's pitcher, G. Wilson, baffled Beverly hitters effectively enough to score a five inning no-hit, no-run game.

C. Kelly and B. Hobbins each socked homers for the winners.

Human Element Value Priceless in Business

Interest in the human element of business is priceless, according to Dr. Dwayne Orton, New York, director of education of International Business Machines Corporation in Edmonton today.

As director of education of IBM, Dr. Orton administers one of the most extensive and unique educational programs in the world.

For 20 years the company has been developing an employe educational program that ranges from general education to sales training, engineering, home economics, life insurance, languages and art.

SMALL TURNOVER

Entirely free and given in large IBM institutions throughout the world, the policy has paid off in an insignificant staff turnover. Accent on health, welfare and development of the employes has resulted in happy staffs doing a good job, he said.

Unique policy originated in 1924 with IBM president Thomas J. Watson, and has spread from U.S. to Canada, South America and Europe. Seventy-five per cent of IBM employes have taken advantage of the training and each year technical and business men of other firms attend advanced classes.

"Education," said Dr. Orton, "is our greatest hope for cutting down the distance lying between achievements in the material realm and our lesser achievements in the world of human relations."

Dr. Orton explained the IBM philosophy in his address, "Human Relations in Technical Times," to the Rotary Club at noon today.

Coast Epidemic Passes Peak

PRINCE GEORGE, B.C., June 16. — (CP) — A "mystery epidemic" which in three weeks struck a thousand persons in Prince George district has passed its peak, Dr. T. H. Patterson, public health director, said today.

Only one case was reported in last 24 hours. The 80-bed hospital, however, is still filled to capacity and weary nurses are working on an emergency basis.

There have been no fatalities. Some business staffs have been halved by the epedemic.

Man. Premier Visiting City

Manitoba will not have a provincial election until October of 1950, Premier D. L. Campbell, head of Coalition government in Manitoba, said today.

"It has always been our policy to run the full five years before seeking re-election," advised the Premier.

"But," he added, "the government has the right to change its mind."

Premier Campbell cautioned the public, however, saying "the election may come any time, but it is likely we'll wait a year."

FAVORS LIBERALS

Commenting on the present Federal election, Mr. Campbell said he was in favor of the Liberal government returning to power.

He will leave for Winnipeg Friday after attending the Royal Commission investigating of transportation, now in progress here. "I am interested in the freight rate fight and want to keep track of it," said Mr. Campbell. "I am planning to attend the meetings in Maritime provinces."

Meeting Will Decide Status

West Jasper Place will be incorporated as a village, if residents follow the advice of government officials.

Delegation of eight residents met with Hon. C. E. Gerhart, minister of municipal affairs today to learn government views on civic management of the district.

Mr. Gerhart said the delegation was advised the procede with incorporation plans. Delegates will report the government view to a meeting of rate payers next week.

The minister said co-operation of the city of Edmonton and of the department of municipal affairs will be required in arranging the incorporation of the village.

One-Quarter of Paving Appropriation Used Up

More than $200,000 of the $800,000 appropriated for paving in Edmonton during 1949 has been spent to date, it was reported today by Acting City Engineer J. D. A. MacDonald.

The engineer explained this means that from a quarter to a third of the capital program of public works authorized by council last spring has now been completed.

Included was a carryover amounting to $160,000 for street work from last year's program.

Building authorized in the program is one third completed while about one third of sewer lines, totalling 122,500 feet, have also been laid.

BUSES BY FALL

Trolley bus conversion is still proceeding, with Jasper Place lines to be operating by late fall. This has been held back pending arrival of steel grid flooring for the Great Ravine bridge on 102 Avenue. Materials will be delivered early in August, engineer has been advised.

Work has already begun on re-flooring and approach changes to the 105 Street bridge. Grid flooring is now at the site.

Several crews are making good progress on concrete - base and asphalt and gravel base sidewalking, with considerable now completed.

NEW GRAVEL PIT

Five crews are using gravel being hauled from the new South Side pit. Pit is producing 1,500 tons a day. Completed are 15,850 linear feet of street gravelling.

Total authorized this year was 107,947 linear feet of streets and lanes.

U.K. POWER WORKERS THREATEN TO STRIKE

LONDON, June 16.—More than 8,000 London electric power station workers have threatened to strike because they claim their wages are to be cut.

Their stoppage would thrust London into darkness, and prolong the wave of labor unrest in Britain. The power workers say they will lose pay by a new agreement reached with the British Electricity Authority, which controls the country's nationalized power industry.

Frank Foulkes, general president of the Electrical Trades Union, warned the men today he could not support strike action, which he said was based on ignorance of the agreement.

He told members of the Union that any anomalies arising out of the agreement must be dealt with through the machinery already in operation, before consideration is given to any other action.

Railway man in the northeastern district have staged 24-hour strikes the last four Sundays over grievances which include new schedules under which they must spend some of their off-time away from home.

Dockers in west-coast ports resumed work yesterday ending a six-week tie-up in sympathy with the strike of the Canadian Seamen's Union.

'Missing Pilot' Turns Up OK

New York publications tycoon Roscoe Fawcett is expected here before the weekend on his way north to begin an attempted non-stop flight from Fairbanks to New York City in a light plane.

The president of Fawcett Publications Inc., hopes to set a new record for the type of light plane he will fly.

Chamber of Commerce officials have been informed that Fawcett will stop here for a day on the way to Fairbanks and will later fly over the city on his record-making attempt.

Ruggers Raise Faculty Ire; Cop Called

Forces of law and order are hampering chances of the Eskimo Football club.

Yesterday Eskimos Ralph Bartolini, Bill Pattimore and Harvey Irving, in company with other young athletes, were keeping in shape playing "touch" football on a university playing field.

This is contrary to wishes of the faculty who dispatched the law, in form of a special constable, to break up contest.

He did.

Halfback Bartolini made for nearby fraternity house where he took flying tackle at couch, feigned sleep.

Cop puffed through front door in pursuit, noted sleeper sweating profusely in spite of cool evening temperature.

Annual Air Show Plans Get C.C., Club Support

Plans for staging an annual air show in Edmonton, with the first in 1950, are proceeding under joint sponsorship of Edmonton Chamber of Commerce and city service clubs.

Special committee has been set up, headed by F. G. Winspear and C. D. Jacox, to study possibilities of staging the show.

Other committee members appointed to date are: Capt. James Bell, city airport manager; Air Vice-Marshal K. M. Guthrie, W. R. "Wop" May, John Michaels, B. W. Pitfield, Leigh Brintnell, George Howsam and D. J. Avison.

COMPANY CONSIDERED

Others will be added to the interim committee if decision to hold the show is made after full investigation.

Secretary-Manager Don McKay of the Chamber of Commerce said today consideration is being given location, dates, cost of professional talent and the general form the show will take.

SUPPORT DECLINED

It is likely that a constitution and legal committee will be appointed after plans have started to take definite shape.

When the Chamber of Commerce first announced plans for an air show last January the Edmonton Exhibition Association was invited to participate but after seeming to favor the project for a time the board declined to support the show.

Manufacturers Hope To Build Big Business Here In Time

LONDON, June 16.—(CP)—Britain's radio industry has its television eye on the Canadian market.

Right now, say British radio executives, the picture is a bit blurred. But eventually they hope to do big business in the dominion despite United States competition and other difficulties.

A group of overseas correspondents who recently toured British radio factories were told Britain is ready to go into the Canadian market from erection of television stations to sale and servicing of receivers. British manufacturers are ready to turn out any type of equipment Canada desires and meet U.S. competition on quality and price.

COMPANY DICKERING

Already one large British company (Electrical and Musical Industries, Ltd.) is negotiating with CBC for erection of Canada's first TV station in Toronto and possibly another in Montreal. An executive said each station would cost about $400,000 but no decision had yet been made if Britain would get the business.

Another British company (PYE) has set up a factory at Ajax, Ont., where television and other radio equipment will be manufactured for sale in Canada. They will offer the latest type British sets in direct competition with U.S. models.

U.S. PATTERN

British manufacturers expect Canada will adopt the television system used in the United States so Canadian sets will be able to pick up U.S. transmissions. The United States system is multi-channel and produces a picture on a 525-line screen compared with the British single-station system which uses a 405-line screen.

Receivers for the multi-channel 525-line system are more expensive to manufacture. But British producers are ready to turn them out for the Canadian market as cheaply as U.S. models.

U.K. PIONEERS

Sir Ernest Fisk head of one British company (EMI) reviewed for correspondents the pioneering of television in Britain where regular broadcasts were started in 1936. Today 12,000 television sets a month are being manufactured and plans are going ahead to spread television throughout Britain. A new station will be opened in Birmingham late this year.

The Canadian market for British radio products has never been large. Britain's exports in this field before the war averaged £2,000,000 ($8,000,000) annually of which Canada took £50,000. Last year radio equipment of all kinds to the value of $12,000,000 was exported, $208,000 worth of it to Canada.

British manufacturers expect great expansion of this trade if they can establish a firm foothold in the television field in Canada.

Geiger Brigades Start Arizona Uranium Rush

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz., June 16 — (AP) — Atomic-age prospectors, armed with Geiger counters and pick axes, have launched a new gold rush in northern Arizona.

This time the "gold" is uranium.

Prospectors are swarming in droves over canyons and arroyos pointing their counters at anything that resembles carnotite. This is one of about 100 mineral ores containing uranium.

In its purest state carnotite contains 60 per cent uranium and 20 per cent vanadium.

ENORMOUS POSSIBILITIES

Charles H. Dunning, director of the department, said the rush resulted from publicity given recent strikes.

"The possibilities of finding and developing uranium sources in northern Arizona are enormous," Dunning says.

Already the towns of Ashfork, Seligman, Williams, Flagstaff, Holbrook and Winslow have noted the influx of prospectors ranging from the grizzled experienced sourdoughs to college students spending a summer vacation.

Platt Cline, editor of the Arizona Daily Sun here, said Flagstaff youths had corraled the Geiger-counter market and were renting the instruments by the hour.

MAGGIE RILEY BEST

The uranium "belt" in Arizona extends from almost the eastern edge of the Grand Canyon east through parts of the Navajo Indian reservation.

Strikes of importance have been made in the state's northern counties.

Most publicized of these is the Maggie Riley claim. A few months ago Mrs. Riley stumbled on some petrified logs. They were flaky and apparently not what she wanted in the way of specimens to polish and sell to tourists.

However, she mailed samples to the mineral resources department and discovered her find was worth $40,000. Logs found on her claim are being shipped to the Atomic Energy Commission's plant at Monticello, Utah.

Scot Soccerites Trim New England

FALL RIVER, Mass., June 16—(CP)—The touring Scottish Internationals last night showed plenty of class in defeating the New England All-Stars 3-1 in an exhibition soccer game before 4,045 fans.

Centre forward Willie Thornton led the Scots scorers, sending his team into a 1-0 lead after 18 minutes and booting home the final goal.

DRY ICE USED

Farmer Brings Rain But in Wrong Place

FLORENCE, N.J., June 16.—(AP)—Farmer Hilyard Simpkins looked at his parched 500 acre fruit and vegetable farm and decided it was time to do something about New Jersey's 24-day drought.

Yesterday he ordered 500 pounds of dry ice from Philadelphia and had it ground into fine powder.

Next he arranged with Raymond Worth, manager of the Florence airport, for an airplane, a pilot and some crop dusting equipment.

But Simpkins didn't have his crops dusted—he had his pulverized dry ice seeded from a height of 3,500 feet into a cloud bank.

The result was five minutes of rain—"about a mile south" of his farm, Simpkins reported.

EYE DOCTORS PLAN DELINQUENCY CURE

DENVER, Colo., June 16.—(UP)—Nine Denver eye doctors have a new recipe for developing juvenile delinquents into attributes to society.

The doctors, who examined the eyes of more than 170 boys at the state industrial school, said "the program is being undertaken with a great deal of enthusiasm."

Delinquency has its roots in school failures and poor eyesight hampers the student.

ON THE TOWN

By J. D.

The Smiths of Hollywood have returned to Edmonton. This statement is slightly incorrect. The Smiths I refer to are not radio comedians and they didn't exactly live in Hollywood.

M. J. COLDWELL
... Here tonight.

But they lived for 14 years pretty close to Hollywood, just about 12 miles away from the world film capital in the quiet little community of Culver City, California.

Reason I thought the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Al Smith in Edmonton last week-end of interest is because the Smith family is boldly reversing a practice that has become highly prevalent of recent years.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were born in Canada. Mrs. Smith was born right here in Edmonton.

They both went to school here. They were married in 1935 and left to make their home in California. Everybody envied them. No more blizzards. No more 50 below zero weather. What a lucky couple.

THEY MADE GOOD

The Smiths made good in California, like most Canadians do. They owned their home, a pretty, modern, six-room bungalow out near the ocean where you get no smog, intense heat or milling crowds.

Their three children were born on American soil. The Smiths became American citizens.

But they're back in Edmonton and to stay. I wondered why, so I asked them.

The head of the Smith household didn't take long with this answer: "I never felt I belonged down there. I always wanted to come back home to Edmonton."

But Mrs. Smith had a different answer and a whole lot more significant, I think.

"I wanted to bring the children up in Canada. I think Alberta is the greatest place for kids in the world," she said.

Mrs. Smith wanted her children to see Alberta winters. She wanted them to see snow. She thinks it wonderful for a youngster to be able to walk to a swimming pool. In Los Angeles his dad would have to drive him 10 miles.

YOUNGSTERS THRILLED

She thinks this is a safer place for children.

She admits Edmonton will take some getting used to again. She'll miss some of the things she left behind in California, her fine home in particular.

The two Smith boys, Pat 10, and Mike five, are thrilled to death. When the Smith automobile crossed the international boundary into Canada, Mike asked: "Where's the snow Mama?"

Little Maureen, at three years of age, is not too curious as yet.

Only member of the Smith household that appears to long for California is the family pooch Tonto. But Tonto was a Hollywood-born dog and could be expected to be a trifle temperamental.

Smith, who was well known as a ball player around here before going to California, has purchased a partnership in Bert's cafe on the South Side. He has plans for building a night club addition.

For the Smiths it's a case of goodbye to sunny California and a big hello to sunny Alberta, which was always their real home.

Coldwell Has Blast For Trade Policy

WETASKIWIN, June 16.—International trade situation was seen as a growing threat to Canadian agriculture by M. J. Coldwell, national CCF leader, in an address here last night.

"I am not predicting immediate depression, but unless we take intelligent steps we will find ourselves in a difficult situation," said Mr. Coldwell.

He was speaking on behalf of Wetaskiwin candidate W. A. Stevens.

"If the international wheat agreement goes into effect it will help meet the situation because it would mean guaranteed market," he said, and likewise the British wheat agreement was essential today.

NOT SYMBOL

He said no amount of financial juggling could remedy the situation because "money was only a symbol. Goods must be behind the money."

The remedy was in sane trading relationship, Mr. Coldwell said, contending the Liberals were resisting this new trading pattern.

He alleged the Liberal government had so abandoned wartime principles of agricultural stabilization that hog production was practically worthless to farmers.

Mr. Coldwell said Canada promised Britain 160,000,000 pounds of bacon in three months of this year and sent only 140,000,000.

This, he said, meant Britain was turning to Poland and was opening her own sources in Australia.

If carried through the year, he said, it would mean Canada would throw away $40,000,000 in exports and would "alienate" one of its best customers.

DAYS ARE GONE

Day of free enterprise in international marketing was over, Mr. Coldwell said.

"Nations through their governments are now buying in bulk," and this was something the CCF advocated as far back as 1933.

Solution for the farmer, he said, was to have a planned economic life through its co-operatives and parliaments.

Mr. Coldwell stopped briefly in the city yesterday and will speak in Kingman today, returning to Edmonton for an address in the Stock Pavilion here tonight.

Terry Reardon Given New Auto

PROVIDENCE, R.I., June 16. — (AP) — Terry Reardon, playing coach who led Providence Reds to the American Hockey league championship last winter, last night was presented with an automobile at a dinner held in his honor. His brother Kenny, star defenceman with Montreal Canadiens in the National League, attended.

Legion Branch Sponsors 89 Citizenships

Eighty-nine Canadians received citizenship papers last night at an impressive ceremony sponsored by the Norwood branch of the Canadian Legion here.

"All Canadians will congratulate you—as they will congratulate themselves on having you," said Sen. James A. MacKinnon greeting the new citizens.

"We wish each one of you well, confident that not only will Canada be good to you, but that you will be good for Canada."

Norwood is the only Legion branch in Canada to sponsor citizenship drives.

Last night's was the second this year. Earlier 44 citizenship certificates were issued.

Membership of the Norwood branch is 100 per cent Ukrainian extraction.

Ceremony was held in the Ukrainian National hall, 10620 96 street.

GIVEN HONOR

Honored at the ceremony was Wasyl Zieniak, of Chipman, who came to Canada 58 years ago, the first of his countrymen to immigrate. He was the second man in Canada to receive a citizenship certificate at official ceremonies at Ottawa. First was Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

Senator MacKinnon cited Mr. Zieniak as typical of his countrymen who have played an important part in developing the West.

"He has seen his children and grandchildren attain positions high in the professional, business and social life of Canada . . . thousands (of Ukrainians) like yourselves have served their Canadian homeland in the King's uniform, anxious to preserve the freedom of their fathers and mothers found in this land," said Senator MacKinnon.

Appeal for national unity was made by Mayor H. D. Ainlay.

NO MORE HYPHENS

"I hope that I will live to see the day when we will no longer have 'hyphenated Canadians,' French-Canadians, Ukrainian-Canadians, Scotch-Canadians," His Worship said. "The term Canadian is big enough to encompass them all."

Certificates were presented by J. P. Melsaac.

Chairman of the meeting was branch president Michael Syrotuck.

Representing Premier E. C. Manning was W. E. Frame, chief superintendent of schools who stressed the importance of education in developing citizenship.

Telegram of congratulation was received from Hon. F. Gordon Bradley, secretary of state of Newfoundland.

DUBIOUS about conventions, F. Rodgers of Lougheed left home without his wife Monday. So impressed was he on arrival at Macdonald hotel, he promptly wired her to come at once. She did and is enjoying it as much as he is. Although he's been postmaster for 30 years this is Mr. Rodgers' first convention. He says he'll come again. —Photos by Sullivan.

Varied Uniforms Mark Postmaster's Career

Redcoat of the Mounties and air force uniform of two world wars have marked colorful phases in the life of postmaster W. B. Holtsbaum of Provost.

Mr. Holtsbaum, with his wife, is renewing friendships at the 21st annual convention of the Alberta Postmasters' Association.

His colorful career includes service with the Royal Flying Corps in the First World War, five years with the RCAF in the second, 20 years as police magistrate in Provost and early days with the North West Mounted Police.

NORTHERN POST

First post as a Mountie was Hudson's Bay Junction which at that time was nothing more than a couple of hotels and saloons. Wolves and bears were handy.

Still youthful, Mr. Holtsbaum is greatly interested in affairs of the Canadian postmaster.

"I believe," he said, "that the recent government change making postmasters civil servants is the biggest advance that has been made in the history of the post office since Confederation."

ULTIMATELY GOOD

While a great many points have still to be ironed out, Mr. Holtsbaum believes the change will work ultimately for the well-being of the postmaster.

In Provost, Mr. Holtsbaum is local chairman of the Canadian Legion committee for the war memorial to be unveiled July 1.

Representatives from surrounding towns and military officials from Edmonton will be present for the unveiling ceremony.

More Phones Are Installed For Airport Use

It's going to be easier to telephone from the Airport Administration building from now on.

Edmonton Chamber of Commerce has been informed by the city that two additional telephones for use of the public have been installed in the waiting room.

Chamber has also been assured of further improvements at the airport administration building.

Space between plastic fence and front of administration will be paved in the not too distant future.

Extensions providing greater room for baggage are to be built and ticket offices will be placed in new locations, the Chamber has been informed.

East Dry Spell Hits West Cattle Market

Beef situation in Edmonton and central Alberta has completely reversed since early this month.

Early predictions forecast an acute beef shortage for the next six weeks or two months.

Market now is glutted.

O. A. Brown, livestock commission agent said today that local packing plants are not buying cattle because there's no market for them, either in eastern Canada or the States.

Reason for reversal is traced directly to the eastern dry spell where lack of rain has caused farmers, running short on grass and water, to sell their cattle prematurely.

Sudden cessation of the eastern market produced an immediate glut here.

Prices on cattle have already dropped sharply Mr. Brown said with all cattle affected to the extent of $1 and $2 per cwt.

Choice cattle which brought $22.50 to $22.75 cwt. a month ago now bring $21 to $21.50 cwt.

Plainer cattle have receded from $1 to $2 a cwt. selling now at 16 to 20 cents per pound.

Feed-lot cattle are holding fairly steady.

Market glut prevails throughout the west, Mr. Brown said

EDMONTON BULLETIN

Financial Future Dim for City Group

Philharmonic Orchestra Re-Elects Sagar as Head

News at the annual meeting of a rejuvenated and optimistic Edmonton Philharmonic Society was a mixture of good and bad last night.

It was the first such meeting held by the Society since its reorganization.

A new constitution is now in effect, and the Philharmonic was incorporated in January under the Societies Act, the first time the Society has thus been organized.

Most of the bad news last night was on the financial side.

Business manager Hector Wyman and treasurer George Johnson announced the Society will go at least $250 and possibly up to $500 into the red as a result of the past year's activities.

The organization began the 1948-49 season with $748.26, now has a cash balance of $278.84 but owes about $900.

About $340 in accounts receivable is still owing the Society by Edmonton business firms (including the City of Edmonton which owes $50) for programs advertising, but business manager Wyman told Society members some of this sum will never be paid.

Next year's resident conductor for the Philharmonic Society will be chosen during the next week or so.

FRATKIN OUT

Abe Fratkin, conductor for the past several years, was given a unanimous vote of thanks upon motion of W. J. Hendra.

It was indicated at last night's meeting that Mr. Fratkin is not seeking the resident conductorship for next year.

In the meantime, the Society executive is considering four "experienced conductors," two of them new arrivals in the city.

Election of officers was held at last night's meeting. Harold C. Sagar was re-elected president of the organization, and will serve his third straight term.

Other officers include: Iola M. Jones, first vice-president (Mr. Jones was second vice-president last year); Harry Weiser, second vice-president, Margaret Dunn, secretary, (re-elected); George Johnson, treasurer, (re-elected); Jennie Osipko, librarian, (re-elected); Jessie Hegarth, assistant librarian.

Six executive members were also elected. Seventh member, who will be chairman of the personnel committee, has yet to be chosen. New members are: George McBride, Ed. Swindlehurst, W. J. Hendra, Alexander Nicol, Mrs. Constance Fairg, Walter Holowach.

Matter of exchanging conductors was discussed at the meeting, and Mr. Wyman commented that musicians from such centres as Berlin, Prague, and Toronto, have written to the Edmonton Phil. offering exchanges. However, only Western Canada exchanges are being contemplated.

Rehearsal days for next season were changed, and will now be held Tuesdays at 8 p.m., and Sundays at 11 a.m.

Hospital Meet

Regular meeting of the Edmonton Hospital Board will be held on Friday, in the Nurses' Home at the Royal Alexandra Hospital.

SHOPPING GUIDE

Bacon to Climb The Price Ladder

By Ben Thrifty

The black cloud of high, high prices has suddenly become more ominous.

And do you know what the cause is? Well . . . the price of hogs is going way up 'n up 'n up 'n up.

This shoots our pork price higher; bacon is supposed to go as high as $1.35 per pound . . . and ain't that a shame?

This is bad news indeed!

And I heard the nasty ol' thing right at the heart of the agricultural whirl . . . so I'm afraid it's true, true, true.

• • •

Then there is further groaning to do about the potential rise in the price of other meats.

This, of course, follows the laws of supply and demand . . . if pork goes up, other meats will sell faster . . . demand up and so will the price.

It's a vicious circle, ain't it?

• • •

Time comes to soothe the saddened soul with sweet talk about sweet things like a simply scrumptious grape juice Bavarian cream.

And this is how you make it:

• • •

Bring two cups grape juice to scald and add one package of lemon jelly powder; stir until dissolved, then add a pinch of salt.

• • •

Chill with occasional stirring until beginning to thicken, then whip until frothy. Fold in one cup heavy cream, whipped, one teaspoon lemon juice and ½ cup chopped nutmeats.

Now comes time to chill in sherbet glasses lined with strips of sponge cake or lady fingers.

Garnish with more chopped nuts . . . and you'll love it! I know.

• • •

There's a beautiful, brand-new shipment of the most wonderful British India rugs in town. They come in assorted shades on solid colors with sprigs of flowers splashed in one corner . . . or completely plain.

They're truly lovely . . . and not as expensive as six months ago. A 25 per cent reduction has been put into effect now.

• • •

For Chinese food lovers the fresh-freezing people have come up with splendid newies.

As well as the chop suey that came to the fore about two months ago . . . we can have chicken chow mein, sweet 'n sour spare-ribs, chicken chop suey . . . and a vast assortment of other national delectables of the Chinese race.

It's made in Vancouver, is very easy to prepare and sells at an average price of 59c per carton with servings for three or four tucked inside.

Tough as it sounds, you might as well try to enjoy your children in spite of the hard work involved in their rearing. You'll get the right attitude from America's famous Bumstead family, above.

WHY GROW OLD

Make a Career Of Motherhood

By Josephine Lowman

A recent letter says, "I'm tied down with two children, the youngest is one year old. Eating seems to be my only enjoyment. I do long to have a more perfect figure but whenever I feel frustrated and tired of housework, I eat.

"It is easy for you to write about being an interesting person, but sincerely, when one was always an active girl, happy with outside contacts, it is very depressing to be tied down daily with just child care. It is too expensive for us to have sitters."

I know from my own experience that this is true. No matter how much you love your children it is bewildering for an active person, one who always had outside interests, to find herself with each day filled to the hilt with baby care and housework, with no escape from them day after day.

It is difficult to give an answer to this problem. Perhaps the first thing to do is to change your viewpoint. The pleasure to be derived from your children is greater than almost any other you can have. Their tender dependence on you and the comical things they will do and say a little later on, as well as the constant and miraculous unfolding of infant personalities, provide one with a rich store of inspiration and humor. Do not miss this because you feel tied down!

Make a career of motherhood and nutrition. Get books from the library and really study child psychology and nutrition. What could be more exciting when you have your own little laboratory at home, in the form of children and husband to which you can happily apply the things you learn!

Housework and child care are dreary only because you bring a dreary and unimaginative attitude to them. It has always amazed me that women are willing to rear children and plan meals without ever trying to learn some of the scientific facts about them, because these constitute two of the most important jobs in the world today!

Besides your study, work with some hobby you like, one which you can carry on at home.

Also, do without cunning else and have a sitter in once in a while.

Remember that this tied down stage is only temporary and will pass. Do not miss the rich values latent in this stage. Psychologists tell us that this is one of the paramount reasons for frustration. If you continue in this vein, someday you will look back and long for the young years of your children after they are gone. Only by living fully in each period of life is one able to look forward with happiness or back without regret!

If you would like to have my leaflet No. 66 "Hobbies," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Miss Glasier Becomes Bride Here Recently

Social room of First Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding recently, when Muriel Irene Glasier became the bride of John Henry Stevens of Toronto.

Rev. J. McBeath Miller officiated at the ceremony which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Glasier of Peace River, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Stevens, of Ajax, Ont.

Given in marriage by John H. Woodward, the bride wore a deep grey-blue gabardine suit. Her accessories were in shades of pink and white, and she carried a prayer book with pink and blue streamers and rosebuds. Pink roses comprised her corsage.

Mrs. Edward Hruby attended her sister as matron of honor, wearing a raspberry gabardine suit with white accessories, and a gardenia en corsage.

Best man was Thomas E. Robinson.

Wedding music was played by Miss Nona Thompson, and the soloist was Miss Mary Shaw.

Reception following the ceremony was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur L. Murray, 10746 University Avenue, where the mother of the bride, and the mother of the bridegroom received the guests.

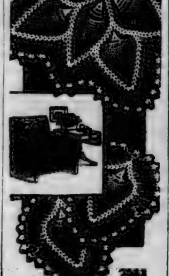

For the daughter's wedding, Mrs. Glasier chose a black crepe dress with pink-trimmed black hat, and pink roses en corsage.

Mrs. Stevens wore a grey tailored suit with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

White peonies and pink carnations were used throughout the reception rooms, and the table was decorated with pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Wendell Bryenton and Mrs. George Taylor, cousins of the bride, poured coffee. Bridal toast was proposed by George Taylor.

After a honeymoon trip by car through Banff and the U.S., Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will make their home in Toronto.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Mixing Baby's Foods Has Disadvantages

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

The decision to mix the child's foods together in a sort of hash, seems to occur to many mothers as an answer to the laborious process of feeding them each food separately.

Donald Francis, 20 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Butt, of 9545 109 avenue.

One mother told me that she mixed meat, vegetables, orange juice and vitamin D all in one meal and that the baby didn't seem to mind it at all. She felt that it saved her lots of time.

It is quite commonplace for mothers to mix the vitamin D and fruit juice together, deciding that the first goes down more easily than if given alone.

But these methods, time-saving though they be, have some disadvantages. The child lives in a world in which he is certain to be asked to eat and enjoy all kinds of food, flavors and textures of foods. He may not like all of them equally, but he will have to develop a tolerance for those he doesn't prefer and eat them when served.

When he is given a mixture of foods that has no distinctive flavor, except that of a mixture, he may learn to like this, but he has no experience in building up a liking for all of the individual foods it contains. It has a texture that is all its own, but is not typical of each of the individual foods.

Obviously, as he grows, he won't get this hash his mother has been wont to feed him. At the age when he has less rest for food than he has during the first year, he will be asked to get acquainted with and accept a number of foods with which he is not familiar. If he balks at doing this, then his experience with food the first year will largely be to blame.

This method has another disadvantage. It is possible for children to be, or to become sensitive to different foods. If none of food in the combination happened to be one toward which the baby was sensitive, he would react to all of them.

Better, far, to give the child an opportunity to learn to like a lot of foods of different flavors and consistencies. Begin each one in small portions, increasing gradually. Then if the child dislikes one or reacts unfavorable to it, it is easy enough to substitute another food of the same type.

Our leaflet No. 26 "Diet From One to Two Years," may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS

Family Money Problem Should Be Discussed

DEAR MISS DIX: Wouldn't a man be a sucker to tell a woman how much money he makes and how much he has in the bank? I have been married twice.

My first wife took all of my money and ran around with another man. She even bought him a car with my money. I do not approve of a man letting his wife know how much money he makes until they have been married several years. By that time he will have found out if she is honest and can be trusted.

I have never told my second wife how I stand financially, for I don't trust any woman with my secrets.

A wife asking her husband questions about his business will break up a love affair, because it makes the husband wonder if she is just a gold-digger. There are many angles to the husband's side of the money problem.

W. R. M.

Answer: I don't think a man is a sucker to make a confidante of his wife. I think he is a sucker to marry a woman who has so little brains and so little honor and honesty that he can't trust her to play fair with him.

Undeniably there are women who are petty thieves who go through their husbands' pockets at night, who pad the grocery bills and even rob the baby's piggie bank to get money for the own devises.

Also, there are wives who blab all the family secrets and to whom a husband cannot tell anything about his affairs without having it spread all over the neighborhood.

But when a man gets this sort of a wife he has brought his misfortune down on his own head. He should have done some investigating before marriage and found out how trustworthy Pretty Face was.

Horoscope

By FRANCES DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR FRIDAY, JUNE 17, 1949.

March 21 to April 20 (Aries)— Complications today unless you keep eye clear; judgment calm. Don't play tricks with what you know to be sound and workable. Finish incompleted matters to better enjoy week-end.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus) — Jog along in productive tempo; don't slight essentials or try to outdo yourself. Be content to finish day's tasks. Make ready for restful week-end and a busy Monday. Be unruffled.

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini)—Keep to a reasonable pace. Don't expect the impossible, but do strive to finish important and urgent work. Not an easy day, but earnest, clever work never goes unrewarded.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer)—If you don't go too far to the left or right in work or play, and keep in an unselfish frame of mind, you can have satisfactory returns for efforts and enjoy wholesome fun, too.

July 24 to August 22 (Leo) — Tone down excitement, overexuberance, so that you can have a sounder view of day's needs and problems. You can accomplish much today if you apply self conscientiously. Time off for fun!

August 23 to September 23 (Virgo)—No need to rush; things should move smoother, quicker if you take them in stride and attend to first things FIRST. Don't undertake new projects if they can wait until Monday.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra)—Heed advice to Taurus now. Neither too favorable nor too restricting days. Familiar matters, finishing incompleted tasks more favored than new and untried issues. However, heed urgent demands.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio) —It's well for all of us to have periods of rush and anxiety are out of order, when we can calmly think, plan and execute our duties. Today is such a day—go easy, confidently.

November 23 to December 22 (Sagittarius)—Speedy returns from sales, work, other activities may not be forthcoming immediately, but if you do your tasks conscientiously you will receive benefits. Have some fun.

December 23 to January 21 (Capricorn)—Heed advice to Scorpio. Much depends on how you accept responsibilities. If you meet your tasks, respect our country's great privileges, you won't mind some restrictions.

January 22 to February 20 (Aquarius) —Tricky influences. Don't be impatient into waiting time if there are important matters awaiting your attention. Don't reverse or start that which you cannot finish.

February 21 to March 20 (Pisces)— All depends today on what your position and various responsibilities are. If not too demanding, take your time, but don't neglect any needed item. Prepare for some recreation, too.

You born today: As a rule, light-hearted, kind, talented, but given to try too many activities at one time and not achieve in any one. You can safely keep up an avocation as well as your life's work (perhaps make it pay) but should not strain nerves and health generally by constant changes, restlessness. Develop your creative ability; practice music, writing, any art for which you have talent. Balance of this year and next are especially advantageous for improvement, advancement. Birthdate: Clas. Gounod, Fr. composer; Sir Wm. Crookes, famed chemist, physicist.

Wife of PC Leader Impresses Public

Mrs. George Drew Urges Women To Express Their Opinions in Vote

OTTAWA, June 16.—(CP)—Mrs. George Drew, wife of the Progressive Conservative leader, is accompanying her husband during his current general federal election campaign tour and is doing her bit to win support for the party.

Florence Drew, a tall brunette with large brown eyes, a contagious smile and a smooth, friendly way of speaking, already is well-known in many parts of Canada. She made cross-country junkets with her husband after he was elected to head his party at a national convention in October, 1948.

"Women are a power because their voting number is so enormous," she said on one occasion. "Naturally, they have the responsibilities of citizenship, but it is not enough to get them out to vote. They must be informed.

"We all have to know what we are voting for, and what we want for our families growing up in this country."

FLUENT LINGUST

She speaks extemporaneously as a rule. When she has to use a prepared text she writes the speech herself. In 1945, when her husband was campaigning as premier of Ontario, she addressed a Sault Ste. Marie meeting in English, French and Italian.

She has been speaking the three languages fluently since she was a child.

Mrs. Drew was born 37 years ago in Florence, Italy, and was named for that city. She is the daughter of Edward Johnson, the famous Canadian tenor who became general manager of the Metropolitan Opera of New York, and of his wife Beatrice, Viscountess D'Arneiro of Lisbon. They married while the Viscountess was in Paris studying music.

She gave up thoughts of a singing career when her father was appointed general manager of the Metropolitan and returned to New York to live with him.

One of her later trips took her to London and there she renewed a childhood acquaintanceship with George Drew. They were married in 1936.

The Drews have two children, Edward, 10, and Sandra, eight. Like their mother, the children are musical. Edward plays the violin and Sandra the piano.

Miss Lakevold Chooses Satin Bridal Gown

MEADOW LAKE, Sask., June 15.—Summer flowers, intermingled with fern, decorated the Meadow Lake Legion Hall for the recent wedding of Barbara Lakevold and Hugh D. Bawden. Rev. W. T. Tilley officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lakevold of Meadow Lake, formerly of Cold Lake, Alberta, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. G. P. Bawden, and the late Dr. Bawden of Moose Jaw.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of traditional white satin, misted with a long veil. A pearl necklace was her only jewelry, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Bridesmaid was Miss Rosemary Bawden, who was gowned in turquoise embroidered nylon. Her turquoise halo hat was trimmed with pink gardenias, and she carried pink carnations.

William Lakevold Jr. attended the bridegroom, and the guests were ushered by O. Sanderman and C. Labes.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. H. L. Cathre and during the signing of the register K. Crawford sang "Because."

Reception following the ceremony was held in the Legion Hall, where the mother of the bride and the mother of the bridegroom assisted in receiving the guests.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lakevold chose a two-piece dress of powder blue eyelet jersey. Her hat was brown and white, and she wore a corsage of mixed flowers.

Mrs. Bawden was in a two-piece dress of mist blue with brown and white accessories, and a summer flower corsage.

Rev. Tilley proposed the bridal toast.

Members of Bethany Circle of Meadow Lake United church assisted in serving.

Leaving for a honeymoon trip to Waskesiu, Prince Albert, Moose Jaw and Winnipeg, the bride wore a wine gabardine suit with grey accessories.

MRS. LOUIS ST. LAURENT

Mrs. St. Laurent Helps Campaign

OTTAWA, June 15.—(CP)—One of Louis St. Laurent's most devoted admirers is a little woman with lustrous brown eyes which fairly glow with pride when talk gets around to the prime minister of Canada.

Jeanne Renault St. Laurent leaves the politics, and all the speech-making that goes with it, to her husband. She has said several times that her career is simply that of a housewife and mother.

But while she seldom steps on a platform to take any personal bows, Mrs. St. Laurent usually is standing, proudly, somewhere near by when her husband is the centre of attention. Her quiet charm and gentle manner of themselves are a drawing card, and in the few short months since she was thrust into public life, as wife of the prime minister, she has won a multitude of friends.

"Not enough time," has been her chief complaint about the new job. She used to like to cook, and to do a bit of needlework, but with so many other duties, she now seldom has time for them in the daily routine.

Had anyone told Mrs. St. Laurent a few years ago that one day she would be living in an apartment in Ottawa, she probably would have said she didn't believe it; didn't want it.

She was happy in the big home in Quebec City, where the five St. Laurent children and their 12 grandchildren could come at will. And in Ottawa she was bound to miss those family Sundays.

FOLLOWED COMMONS

But when her husband was named leader of the Liberal party, Mrs. St. Laurent remained as always during their 41 years of married life—at his side.

During the last session of parliament she could be seen any hour of the day or evening, sitting in the Senate gallery of the Commons, watching her husband at work on the floor of the House. She followed every word of the debates although, as she once confessed, she occasionally had trouble understanding the English.

And when he gets up to speak always she is there, with what one newspaper writer described as that "happy and radiant look" which betspeaks her affection and the great pride she has in her husband.

Miss Ambrose Pledges Vows

Peonies and sweet peas decorated McDougall United Church for the recent wedding of Marion Ambrose and James Ferguson. The Rev. Wesley Bainbridge performed the ceremony.

Noami Skinner played the wedding music and Vaurie Cox was soloist during the signing of the register.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ambrose of Lake Isle, and the bridegroom the son of Mrs. James Ferguson and the late Mr. Ferguson of Winnpeg.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of white sheer, complemented with nylon mittens. She carried a bouquet of red roses and white sweet peas and wore as her only jewelry a gold locket, gift of the bridegroom.

Ruth Ambrose, twin sister of the bride, was the only attendant. She wore a dress of blue sheer with net mittens and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Kenneth Ferguson was best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Ambroae wore a dress of blue jersey with white accessories and a Talisman rose corsage.

Kenneth Ferguson proposed the toast to the bride at a reception following the ceremony.

BRIDGE

Success Depends On Heart Finesse

By William E. McKenney

Ethics play a very important part in bridge. That reminds me of an argument I heard years ago as to whether or not it was unethical to look at cards in your opponents' hands if they failed to hold them up.

Bridge is an intellectual game. You have certain rights, but on the other hand, it is unethical to take advantage of certain situations. To hesitate with a singleton in order to mislead the opponents is considered unethical. Watching where your opponent or partner draws his card from in order to get a count on a suit also is considered unethical.

However, you do have a right to make natural deductions from certain plays or mannerisms. If one of the players picks up his cards and nervously asks, "Whose deal is it?" in all likelihood he has a good hand. During the play certain mannerisms may guide you.

Take today's hand for example, which was made by one of the country's greatest players. He won the opening lead of the five of clubs with the king, then led the deuce of hearts. East hesitated and finally played the eight of hearts. The queen was played from dummy and West won with the ace. He returned the queen of diamonds which declarer won. The three of hearts was led and East played the nine-spot. Now should declarer finesse the ten?

Lesson Hand—N-S vul.

South	West	North	East
1♣	Pass	1♥	Pass
4♠	Pass	6♥	Pass
	Opening—♣5		16

Bear in mind what East did when the first heart was played. He hesitated. If he had only the eight and nine of hearts, he would have had nothing to hesitate about. Therefore, you are within your rights to reason that East also must hold the jack. You must finesse the ten, and you make the hand.

You might ask why the ten should not be finessed the first time. If East held the ace and hesitated a moment, wondering if he should play it, you would then lose two heart tricks, one to the jack and one to the ace.

Mt. Rainier is the second highest perpetually snow-capped peak in the United States.

Ruth Martha Peterson Weds Leonard Moline

Double-ring wedding ceremony was held recently in Grace Lutheran Church when Ruth Martha Peterson became the bride of Leonard Wilbam Moline. The Rev. C. Kiewer performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Peterson of Hughenden and the bridegroom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Moline of Edmonton.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a dress of white sheer. It was fashioned with long sheer sleeves and a sweetheart neckline.

A net headdress held her veil to her head and she carried a bouquet of red roses and white gladioli. Triple strand of pearls was her only jewelry.

Lillian Kupach wore a dress of blue sheer and Frances Lesher a dress of pink sheer. They attended the bride as bridesmaids and they wore matching veils and carried colonial bouquets.

Alfred Noren was best man and usher was Gustave Wahl.

Armen Appell played the wedding music and Betty MacMillan was soloist.

RECEPTION AT CORONA

At a reception for 40 guests at the Corona hotel a three-tier wedding cake centred the bride's table. Mr. Kiewer proposed the toast to the bride.

Before taking up residence in Hughenden the couple left for a honeymoon trip by car to Jasper and Banff. To travel the bride wore a black suit with rose accessories.

Methods of Cookery Matter to Nutrition

Since one of the objectives in cooking food is to make it as nutritious as possible, consideration should be given to the proper methods of cookery.

Experts of the health and welfare department suggest that vegetables generally suffer most from improper cooking.

One of the department's publications, "Healthful Eating," points out that vegetables are rich in minerals and vitamins, the nutrients so readily affected by water and heat. Great care must be taken to retain as much of the food value as possible.

Vegetables should be prepared close to meal-time. If cut, the pieces should be large because when cut in small pieces a larger surface area is exposed to the water, thus increasing the loss of vitamins and minerals.

In cooking vegetables the booklet suggests:

1. Use the least amount of water possible, since many of the nutrients will dissolve in water.

2. Have the water boiling before adding the vegetables. Experiments show vegetables started in cold water have almost twice the mineral loss that they have if boiling water is used.

3. Cover the saucepan tightly to shorten the cooking period and to cut down oxidation of vitamin C.

4. Cook only until tender—not soft.

5. Use the remaining cooking water in the preparation of soups and gravies.

6. Serve vegetables immediately after cooking because if they are allowed to stand for any length of time high vitamin losses occur.

The health experts also have some suggestions for cooking meat:

1. Cooking with dry heat: roasting, pan broiling and oven broiling. Shrinkage is reduced when meat is cooked slowly in an uncovered pan.

2. Cooking with moist heat: braising (cooking in steam) and stewing (cooking in water). These methods are used for less tender cuts in order to soften the connective tissues.

Eggs should be cooked at a low temperature to prevent the toughening and curdling of the protein. High cooking temperatures also toughen the protein of cheese and make it less digestible.

Pleasant conversation at mealtime is not just proper etiquette, it also is an aid to digestion. Health and welfare department officials say that tense nerves and frayed tempers at the dinner-table often lead to digestive upsets and, in the case of children, to the creation of a stubborn feeding problem.

Incidentally parents should never try to force food into a child against his will. Children do not always eat the same amount from day to day and their tastes sometimes change. Parents should try to fill their children's nutritional needs with the foods their children prefer.

By Atomic Energy

Atomic energy, working slowly through millions of years instead of in a flash as in the man-made atomic bomb, makes mountain systems by bulging the earth's crust up into immense blisters, which then collapse and let the heated rock beneath escape as magma or lava.

Cooled Off

Evidence now points to the conclusion that a hundred million years ago the sea water off the coast of Western Europe was warmer than it is now, with temperatures ranging from 60 to 90 degrees Fahrenheit.

Cake Surprise For Sunday, Fathers' Day

How about Father's Day?

The sure-fire answer in most Canadian homes is always "a rich chocolate cake."

But what about the rest of Dad's own Father's Day dinner? Well, to that question there are positive answers, too. Here's a list of foods men generally rate as "best"—steak, roast beef, potatoes, corn, lima beans, beef-steak, tomatoes, sweet onions.

Men like peace and quiet, too.

How about having a little conference with the rest of the family before his dinner. Agree to postpone all arguments, demands and general confusion until the next day.

As to the cake, here's one with "Dad" all over it:

FATHER'S DAY CAKE

Preparation: Have all ingredients at room temperature. Preheat oven to 375 degrees F. Line bottoms of 2 heart-shaped pans with waxed paper.

Ingredients: One-half cup shortening, 2¼ cups sifted cake flour, 1¾ cups sugar, 1½ teaspoons soda, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1½ cups sour milk or buttermilk, 2 squares melted chocolate, 2 eggs.

Step 1: Place shortening in bowl. Sift together flour, sugar, soda and salt into bowl. Add vanilla and 1 cup of the sour milk. Beat 2 minutes on medium speed of electric mixer, or by hand using 150 strokes per minute. Throughout mixing time keep batter scraped from sides and bottom with rubber scraper. Scrape bowl and beaters.

Step 2: Add melted chocolate, eggs and remaining sour milk and beat for 2 additional minutes. Scrape bowl and beaters. Pour equal amounts of batter into cake pans. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) for 30 minutes or until done. Cool.

Icing: Cream ½ cup shortening with ¾ teaspoon salt and 1 teaspoon vanilla. Add 2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar and 3 tablespoons milk. Reserve a little for lettering and decoration. Stir 2 squares (2 ounces) melted unsweetened chocolate into remaining icing. Add additional milk if necessary; to make a soft creamy mixture. Fill and ice cake with chocolate. Use white icing for "Dad" and the frill around the edge, or reverse, using white icing for cake and chocolate for lettering.

Variety Pays Off In Vegetable Cookery

Care of Fresh Vegetables Is Important in Budget-Planning

By Jane Scott

The abundant supply of fresh vegetables that can flood your table these summer days is good news for your menus and your diets.

But don't let the abundance of summer vegetables lead you into careless treatment of them. Fresh vegetables must be treated as the most delicate of foods if you're to have them at their best.

Of course, the shorter the time between the vegetable patch and your table the better they are. When you're buying, choose fresh vegetables that are firm and crisp. Buy only one or two days' supply at a time . . . It saves waste and food value.

Wash and clean all vegetables as soon as they come from the market. Remember what one rotten apple can do to a good barrel? One little rust spot can be just as infectious to a head of lettuce.

Collect recipes to vary the preparation of plentiful vegetables. Think twice before you just plain boil a vegetable . . . and don't do it. There are so many ways to cook vegetables; try variety and you'll have better eating.

A good variation of old-fashioned fried tomatoes, devilled tomatoes have a crisp tangy coating. Stuffed vegetables are a hearty entree and a good disguise for left-over meats. Cabbage and tomato scallop is a fancy treatment for a budget vegetable, and you will find carrot patties a very satisfactory meat substitute.

APPETIZING ARRAY of table ready meats can assure a dinner-time success for the hostess. Mixtures of flavors and textures may be arranged in pattern with vegetable garnish.

Table Ready Meats Add Dash to Menu

By Jane Scott

Fine fare for summer meals are table ready meats. Guaranteed to add zip to any menu, these popular meats offer a variety of textures and flavors to please every taste.

Almost endless are the buffet platters, sandwiches, casseroles, or salad combinations offered by selected table ready meat varieties.

In selecting the meats, keep in mind the appetite appeal of a variety of meats with different flavors, shapes, textures and colors.

To make your meat platter pretty as a picture and to complete a wonderfully flavored meal, centre the platter with cury tomato aspic ring and cottage cheese. A novel touch is a "butterfly" centre of attraction made by cutting the aspic ring in half and turning it to form two half moons, fill the centre of each half with snowy cottage cheese.

Boxer Charges Managers Boycotting Him

LOS ANGELES, June 16—(AP)—Heavyweight boxer Elbert (Turkey) Thompson claimed yesterday in a suit that 13 southern California boxing managers are boycotting him and have wrecked his negotiations for an exhibition bout with Joe Louis.

Turkey's suit said the managers conspired to break up his negotiations with Louis last May 3 by threats to boycott the Olympic Stadium if the bout was staged there.

The fighter said he now has obtained a fight date—not with Louis—at Hollywood Legion Stadium but that the managers have threatened to boycott him if he fights there. He asks $25,000 damages and an injunction against any boycotting.

He directed his suit against Dan Barnhart, as president of the southern California Boxing Managers Association, and 12 other members.

Pottery Making Is One Of The World's Oldest Crafts

Dear Tawasis:

Have you ever wondered why we use round cups, plates and dishes? It seems a silly question to ask since everybody knows the dishes we use are round but there is a reason why this is so.

Making of dishes is one of the oldest crafts in the world and immediately you think of the craft you think of the potter. In the Bible there is a story of the prophet who went down to the potter's house where he was working with his wheel. Many things have changed since that time but the potter still uses his wheel and it is because he uses a wheel our dishes are round.

Plates which we use every day are chiefly made of clay from the powder which has been worn away from granite rocks. The clay is washed out of rocks and prepared for the potter. Other things are mixed with clay to make it right for making dishes.

LIKE BREAD DOUGH

Now the potter has a shapeless mass very similar to dough used for bread. Then the potter uses his wheel. This wheel is not very different from the wheels which the Chinese potters used hundreds of years ago.

The potter's wheel lays flat like a record on a gramophone.

By means of a foot-brake the potter controls the speed his wheel turns, and the wheel moves by power from a flywheel. This may be worked by hand or machinery. The wheel goes round and the potter throws his clay upon it.

While the wheel rotates the potter shapes the inside of the clay with his thumbs until it is the right shape. But shaping is only the first process. The clay has to be baked in kilns or ovens and afterwards glazed, but the shape of the article is fixed by the potter with his shaping tools while the wheel goes round.

SOME ARE SQUARE

It is possible for potters, by the use of certain tools, to shape square plates and dishes but when they use the wheel it is not difficult to understand why the cups, plates and dishes we use every day are round.

But the dishes which we see aren't all white. Pottery painting is an interesting and painstaking work. Much fine china is hand painted with specially prepared paints.

In Alberta pottery is made in Medicine Hat but one of the most famous areas for pottery is North Staffordshire in England.

Sincerely,

Joan Walker

Birthday Greetings

June seems to be a popular birthday month with boys and girls from all parts of Alberta and British Columbia celebrating their birthdays during this sunny month.

Birthday wishes go to Mavis Catt of Moon Lake who was 14 years old June 8. Bobby Kenngiesser of Lacombe celebrated his ninth birthday June 12, while June Marie Hanak of Vilna had her 17th birthday June 10.

Fifteen candles were on the birthday cake of June Weins when she celebrated her birthday June 11. June is a Tawasi Club member from Kelowna, B.C.

June 19 will be an extra special day for Diane Fulton of Ardrossan for that is the day of her 11th birthday. Many happy returns of the day go to Charles Mainhead of Alberta Beach who will be 12 years old June 22. Gladys Savich of Mundare can hardly wait for the calender to come around to June 24 for on that day she will celebrate her 13th birthday.

Birthdays in June are lots of fun because you can play outside.

BEDTIME STORY

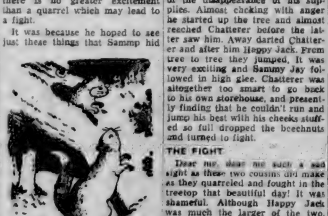

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

Alas! alas! when cousins fight
How dreadful 'tis to see!
I cannot think of anything
That any worse can be.

And yet some people love to see a fight. Sammy Jay is one of these. Sammy is never happier than when he is quarreling himself or watching others quarrel. I suppose it is because he loves excitement and there is no greater excitement than a quarrel which may lead to a fight.

It was because he hoped to see just these things that Sammy hid where he could watch the storehouse of Happy Jack Squirrel from which Chatterer the Red Squirrel was stealing. For quite a while nothing happened. Happy Jack brought more brown, little beechnuts and hid them away in the hollow limb which was his storehouse. As soon as he went for more, Chatterer would appear and take away as many as he could stuff in both cheeks. Then Sammy wondered how long it would be before Happy Jack missed these nuts.

A DISCOVERY

The instant Happy Jack was out of sight, Chatterer, who all the time had been hidden where he could watch Happy Jack, appeared and hurried to steal more of those sweet little nuts. Now it happened that Happy Jack was still turning over and over in his mind the mystery of those vanishing stores of his and halfway back to the beech trees he decided to have another look at his storehouse. So back he came and reached his storehouse just as Chatterer came out with his cheeks stuffed full of the nuts Happy Jack had so patiently gathered.

At the sight of him, Happy Jack understood in a flash the mystery of the disappearance of his supplies. Almost choking with anger he started up the tree and almost reached Chatterer before the latter saw him. Away darted Chatterer and after him Happy Jack. From tree to tree they jumped, it was very exciting and Sammy Jay followed in high glee. Chatterer was altogether too smart to go back to his dreadful storehouse, and presently finding that he couldn't run and jump his best with his cheeks stuffed so full dropped the beechnuts and turned to fight.

THE FIGHT

Dear me, dear me such a sad sight as these two cousins did make as they quarreled and fought in the treetop that beautiful day! It was shameful. Although Happy Jack was much the larger of the two, Chatterer was the quicker in his movements and so the fight was not at all unequal. Of course, Happy Jack was in the right and when he called Chatterer a thief, as he did over and over again he was stating the truth. But those sharp, angry voices were not at all pleasant to hear.

So they chased each other and fought until they were so tired that they simply had to stop. Still scolding and calling names, Happy Jack went to his storehouse to see just how much he had lost. Chatterer shouted a few ugly things after him and then started for the old nest of Blacky the Crow in which he had hidden his stolen goodies. He went there to gloat over them as if he had come by them honestly instead of dishonestly, for he is quite shameless.

NEXT STORY: Chatterer Doesn't Gloat.

Man With Hammer Deadens Yammer

By Ken Liddell
Provincial News Editor

It is simply beyond our comprehension how a man can make so much noise with a hammer.

Not a trip hammer. Just an ordinary man with an ordinary hammer trying to fasten an ordinary nail.

Went across the street the other day with Al McLellan for a cup of coffee and among others in the place was a fellow with a hammer.

★ ★ ★ ★

Didn't hear a word McLellan said because of this fellow with the hammer. Don't know what he was hammering at, but he was sure a hard worker.

One thing in his favor, he drowned the yammering of the waitresses. Stack a dries, two over, and all that sort of thing.

And the hammering brought to mind queer things about people in general once they get into cafes.

★ ★ ★ ★

Have you ever been sitting at a lunch counter with five empty seats on each side and some character with big elbows sits in the seat beside you? Usually the kind of a guy who sniffles, too.

And he says nothing. Just sits there, sucking his soup.

Then there is the quaint habit of women. Four seats are vacant. Two women come in. Instead of sitting so there would be two empty seats side-by-side, they sit in the centre, leaving an empty seat on each side. The shuffle that follows when two more come in always helps to speed service.

★ ★ ★ ★

Ah, there's nobody more queer than people. But it would be a lonesome world without them.

Except for the fellow with the hammer. He can go build a barn at Beaverlodge any time he wants. What a noise. It was just a little nail, too.

One of his mighty swipes would have cracked concrete, let alone drive the nail. But he had to take three more, too.

★ ★ ★ ★

Had intended to ask him what he was mad about, but it was worth life and limb to get near flailing hammer head. Safer to get out before he brought down the place.

Never did find out what McLellan was talking about.

PS: Place still standing so went back in afternoon, found fellow fussing with hammer AND saw and twice as much to-do about it. Must be fixing something. Went somewhere else. McLellan repeated what he had been saying. Forget what it was, now.

No Release For Jailed Cleric

VIENNA, June 16. — (AP) — Theodore Cardinal Innitzer, Archbishop of Vienna, yesterday termed "completely without foundation" reports that Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty is slated for release from imprisonment in Hungary. The published reports quoted Roman Catholic sources here as saying the Communist-led Hungarian regime is willing to release Cardinal Mindszenty or permit him to be an exile in the west. The Hungarian cardinal was sentenced to life imprisonment on charges of treason.

Sea Strikers Go to Court

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16.—(UP)—Twenty-eight striking Canadian seamen were ordered to appear in federal court today to show cause why they should not be removed from the vessel Eastwave.

The United States government seized the vessel yesterday after the crew struck Monday. The captain, on the advice of consular officials, had discharged the crew and ordered the strikers ashore.

The crew at first refused to leave the ship, but after deputy marshals came aboard, they filed down the gangplank and stretched their gear out on a pier, where they announced they would sleep for the night.

However, guards ordered them off the pier. Later, the CIO Marine Engineers' Association announced that it had made arrangements to take care of the striking crew.

DIRT IS CAUSE

Crewmen said they struck the vessel because the ship was "dirty" and the food "rotten." However, behind the grievance lay a strike of Canadian Seaman's Union which has tied up the country's ships in many world ports. Main issue in the dispute is a disagreement over recognition by the Canadian Ministry of the AFL Seafarers' International Union.

Police Seize Czech Priest

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, June 16.—(UP)— Czech police entered the palace of Catholic archbishop Josef Beran Wednesday, arrested his chancellor and a priest, and stationed guards throughout the building, reliable church sources said tonight.

Some sources said the archbishop himself was ordered confined to the palace, but this could not be confirmed. Others said he had made no attempt to leave.

Ten police were said to have gone to the palace while Archbishop Beran and some of his bishops were lunching. The police demanded the kays to the consistory and seized a mimeograph and some forms there.

Those arrested were identified as one doerner, the office chancellor, and a Father Kucera.

26 Aircraft Fight Wyoming Grasshoppers

GILLETTE, Wyo., June 16.—(UP)—An armada of 26 planes was thrown into a counter-attack today against a Wyoming invasion of grasshoppers.

The planes were to continue an operation which began yesterday to bomb 1,000,000 acres with poison bran.

For the last three weeks entomologists have been planning the war. They toured hundreds of miles of rangeland in Wyoming and Montana, and finally picked out the "worst million acres." In some areas 200 grasshoppers per acre were counted.

South Driver Tried For Toppling Bus

MEDICINE HAT, June 16.—(CP)—Witnesses testified yesterday that Medicine Hat Chinese gardener Wong Wah was driving about 50 miles an hour last June 10 when the truck he was driving overturned. They testified at the hearing in police court of a charge of dangerous driving against the gardener, whose truck was carrying 25 school-age youngsters when it toppled.

All escaped serious injury.

Wong said he had been travelling less than 30 miles an hour until he speeded up to climb a long hill. The truck overturned on the hill.

The case will continue today.

Boy's Death Said Accident

EASTMAN, Que., June 16.—(BUP)—A coroner's jury ruled last night Michel Fontaine, six-year-old subject of the greatest search in Quebec's history, died accidentally.

The jurors' verdict, returned without hesitation in the death of the frail, underweight and asthmatic youngster who disappeared the night of May 30, cleared up the last vestige of suspicion he had met with foul play.

Michel failed to return home one night after he left with his elder brothers to help bring in their father's cows. His body, the head resting on a log and the lower part dangling in a slimy bog, was found by two policemen and two volunteer searchers in a swamp Tuesday night.

Security Idol Chokes Trade

QUEBEC CITY, June 16.—(BUP)—Present-day businessmen are worrying so much about the fetish of security that they are throttling competition, Edgar Burton, president of one of Canada's largest retail establishments, said today.

Burton, president of Robert Simpson Company, spoke as Canadian delegate to the 12th annual conference of the International Chamber of Commerce.

He said business progress could be assured only if there is "the challenge of risk, the lure of profit, the fear of failure, and the satisfaction of success."

SECURITY FETISH

"Unfortunately," he said, "in the last 30 years there has been an accelerated trend toward the fetish of security as the only important social and economic principle. The result of this has been a throttling of competition and a shrinkage of the area in which individual decisions can take place."

"Unrealistic exchange rates, import restrictions, customs practises and state trading comprise an unplanned but real international conspiracy to restrain trade," he said.

Hollywood's Vice Queen Claims Police Paid Off

LOS ANGELES, June 16.—(UP)—Former Hollywood vice queen Brenda Allen appeared before the county grand jury today is discuss her alleged "payoffs" to members of the police vice squad.

"I'm ready to talk and talk plenty," the svelte, 30-year-old woman told district attorney's investigators yesterday. Accusations linking her with police pay off led to the sensational grand jury probe and the transfer of several vice squad detectives to uniform duty.

Miss Allen currently is serving a county jail sentence for pandering. Police who raided her luxurious house above the Sunset Strip last year found a "little black box" which they said listed some of the "biggest names in Hollywood" as customers.

Wearing a veil and dark glasses and looking more like a movie queen than a vice queen, the shapely brunette was taken from her jail cell yesterday in a search of her safety deposit boxes.

Almost 1000 persons blocked traffic outside one downtown building where officers whisked Miss Allen inside to search her records.

"Tell 'em everything, Brenda!" shouted the bystanders. "Atta girl, Brenda!"

Then she was hustled back into a police car which roared off, siren screaming, to a westside warehouse where her stored luggage was searched for further evidence.

Investigators said they found the "little black box" and several photographs, one of a bouquet of lilies which Miss Allen said police Sgt. E. V. Jackson sent her for Easter.

Jackson, transferred from the vice squad this week, has told the grand jury he used Miss Allen only as a source of information. He denied sending the flowers.

Big Four Talks Believed at End

Berlin, Austria Treaty Hoped To Be Brought To Conclusion

PARIS, June 16.—(CP)—The Big Four foreign ministers this afternoon went into a closed meeting which is expected to be the last session of their Paris conference.

The western ministers expected to receive the Russian reply to their latest counter-proposals for a temporary east-west truce in Europe, which were put forward yesterday.

Delegation circles said they believed that ministers will remain in session until they resolve their present differences.

BERLIN, AUSTRIA TALK

The ministers appeared determined to salvage from the month-long parley two broad agreements on the future of Berlin and Austria.

Settlement of the Berlin dispute would make it easier for the two sides to live together in a physical and economic—if not political—sense. The question of an Austrian peace treaty has been the subject of bickering for the last two years.

British and French officials said they would make every effort to wind up their work by tonight, but American and Russian sources expressed doubt the talks would end before Saturday.

Before the ministers today will be the question of how they can help settle the complicated Berlin rail strike. They talked over the strike situation among themselves yesterday with no apparent results.

PROPOSED ARRANGEMENTS

Some concrete arrangements for the future of Berlin are believed in sight, however. Those arrangements would look something like this:

Both sides would promise not to reimpose any kind of trade or traffic restrictions into or out of Berlin.

Both would agree to promote trade and commerce between the respective zones.

Top Russian and western representatives in Germany would be ordered to consult each other any time trouble arose.

These four high commissioners also would supervise the formation and activities of an all-German emonomic committee dedicated to maintain and develop trade and financial links between the country's two segments.

AMERICANS CAUTIOUS

Both the British and French appear optimistic that Russia and the west will succeed in removing most of their main differences regarding the Austrian independence treaty before the conference ends. American officials are more cautious in their outlook.

Although nothing has been definitely settled, the four ministers are expected to announce that they will reconvene in New York next fall.

Observers said if the ministers do lay the basis for an agreement on Austria, the details will be passed to their deputies to whip into shape in time for the fall meeting.

Police Chief Stands Firm

TORONTO, June 16.—(CP)—Police chief Joe Nelson of suburban Port Credit today stood firm in his determination to prosecute Caio de Lima Cavacanti, commercial counsellor of the Brazilian ambassador at Ottawa, on a charge of speeding.

"It will be treated just the same as any ordinary charge," Chief Nelson said today. "And it now lies in the hands of the magistrate."

The case, which has developed into a legal tangle is scheduled to come before the court in two weeks unless the presiding magistrate rules Cavacinti is exempt through his diplomatic standing.

Chief Nelson previously refused a request from the external affairs department that the charge be dropped on the ground that the commercial counsellor is entitled to diplomatic immunity."

CALVERT 1622 Famous Families OGDEN 1783

Isaac Ogden, New England-born Empire Loyalist, came to Montreal in 1783. He was appointed Judge of the Admiralty Court and later Judge of the Superior Court. His son, Charles Richard, a lawyer, was Attorney-General for Lower Canada from 1833 to 1842. Another son, Peter Skene, associate of fur trader John Jacob Astor, was a partner in the North West Company and on its amalgamation with the Hudson's Bay Company, became Chief Factor at Fort St. James. Truly a distinguished Canadian family.

Great Families Create Great Nations

CALVERT, head of the famous Calvert family, distinguished English statesman and Secretary of State to King James I, founded pioneer New World colonies in Newfoundland and Maryland in the early days of the 17th Century.

In the New World, Calvert and his descendants advocated friendly trade relations with the Indians. They also fostered principles of democratic freedom and religious tolerance among their settlers. These Calvert ideals were perpetuated down through the succeeding generations of the Calvert family.

The family is the corner-stone upon which great nations are built. Let each of us promote within the great Canadian family the same concepts of freedom and tolerance pioneered by the Calvert family over three hundred years ago.

The Calvert family encourage trade with the Indians.

Industrials Hold Portion of Gains

Papers Lead Market Upturn; Golds Go Ahead, Metals Dip

TORONTO, June 16.—(CP)—Early gains were whittled down as trading progressed on the Toronto Stock Exchange today. Industrials opened strong and managed to hold a large part of their gains through the remainder of the session. Golds also tightened while base metals showed a weaker tone. Western oils were steady. Volume was about 370,000 shares.

Papers led the upturn in industrials as the recovery movement continued. Steels, refining oils and utilities were also strong fractionally. A few foods and banks weakened.

Early gains were largely wiped out in base metals.

Senior golds brightened slightly and gains ranged up to about 15 cents in key junior producers.

NEW YORK LACKS BUYING SUPPORT

NEW YORK, June 16.—(AP)—Prices today moved slightly lower in the stock market after early gains failed to attract buying support.

The volume of trading was at the rate of about 800,000 shares for the entire session.

Volume gave no indication of buying or selling pressure. The movement of prices in either direction excited no expansion or contraction in trading.

Today's quiet was in sharp contrast to yesterday's market which burst out into one of the widest advances in a year.

There is a feeling in Wall Street that the market is trying to make up its mind which way to go in an unmistakable manner.

Canadian issues were irregular. Dome Mines and Distillers Seagrams added ⅛, Canadian Pacific and Hiram Walker eased ⅛.

GAINS ARE DOUBLE MONTREAL LOSSES

MONTREAL, June 16.—(CP)—Gains outnumbered losses in the ratio of 2-1 in dull trading near the final hour on the Montreal Stock Exchange and Curb market today. Mines moved ahead quietly.

Consolidated Smelters and Hudson Bay attracted attention in a narrow base metal list.

Imperial Oil improved a shade to 17 but Royalite dropped five cents to 6.30.

Gains in mines were negligible.

In a narrow western oil list, Home Oil added 25 cents to reach 9.25. Anglo-Canadian crept forward a few pennies.

WESTERN OILS ARE SLIGHTLY IMPROVED

CALGARY, June 16.—Western oils showed a slightly improved trend on Calgary Exchange today and volume went up to 94,675. North Continental traded 52,000 shares at 9¼ to 11, with the close of 11 higher than yesterday by 1½ cents.

Angio remained at $3.00, but Okalta gained one at $1.26. Pacific Pete closed at $2.28, same as yesterday, but had reached $2.32 earlier in the session. Sunset was ¼ better at 18½ in sales of 5,600 and Superior added ½ at 32½.

Central held at 60 and Decalta gained ½ at 11. Princess was 1½ better at 19½. Dalhousie closed at 32 after touching 30¾.

Wheat Slumps Over 3 Cents

CHICAGO, June 16.—(AP)—Wheat tumbled more than three cents a bushel at times today on the Board of Trade. Soybeans, lard and other grains also declined in a generally weak market.

Selling of wheat came mainly from leading commission houses with southwestern branches. It was believed to be hedging against purchases of new crop cash wheat. Clear skies over the southwest were speeding the new harvest, now underway in a few southern Kansas counties.

Speculative and investment buying shied away from wheat and traders waited to see how prices would hold as new crop movement expands. Cash prices on both new and old crop grain declined a few cents in the southwest.

An increase in cash corn receipts helped to depress that grain. Sport market prices eased. Cash oats receipts also increased, but a good demand developed in the spot market and prices moved higher against the trend in futures.

Wheat closed 1⅛-2⅜ lower, corn was ⅛-1⅜ lower, oats were ⅜-⅝ lower, rye was ½ lower to ⅝ higher, soybeans were 1 to 1½ lower, and lard was unchanged to 7 cents a hundred pounds lower.

Grain Futures Ease With Reports of Rain

WINNIPEG, June 16.—(CP)—Coarse grains futures prices showed an easier tone on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today, reflecting fair rains over the Canadian rain belt.

Shippers were good buyers in oats and barley. Offerings were fairly heavy in the form of hedging sales and other selling increases. There was some seaboard demand for oats and processors demand for barley.

Rye also turned lower, with some fair buying by American interests. Offerings were slight.

The United Kingdom was allocated 725,000 bushels of wheat under the Anglo-Canadian wheat agreement. Germany was listed as purchaser of 115,000 bushels. Price of class two wheat, for export to countries other than the United Kingdom, dropped three cents.

ZINC PRICE CUT AGAIN

NEW YORK, June 16.—(AP)—A custom smelter yesterday trimmed the price of zinc half a cent to nine cents a pound, East St. Louis basis.

The new price is a quarter of a cent below the last OPA price ceiling established in October of 1946 and abandoned on Nov. 8 that year. Zinc sold at the post-war high of 17½ cents a pound from last Oct. 22 until March 23 this year.

Dividend Index Drops Slightly During June

Index of dividend payments compiled by Nesbitt, Thomson and Co. Ltd. shows a further decline from 215.4 in May to 213.1 in June. The index, however, shows an overall rise of 15.2 from 197.9 in June, 1948 to 213.1 as at June 13, 1949.

The Nesbitt, Thompson index of dividend payments does not contain any gold mining companies. It is designed to measure the general trend payments of industrial, commercial, utility and banking companies. The average of 1935-39 equals 100.

It is pointed out that during the period from June 15, 1948 to June 10, 1949, the Dow Jones averages have shown the following changes.

30 industrials 193.16 to 164.61 (off 28.55); 20 rails 61.19 to 42.70 (off 18.49); 15 utilities 36.03 to 34.21 (off 1.82); 65 stocks 71.09 to 58.96 (off 12.13).

London Stocks

LONDON, June 16.—(Reuters)—Small gains shown by leading industrial issues when the market opened today were not held in all cases. All sections of the stock exchange were quiet with only a minimum of business transacted.

There was a better feeling at the opening following yesterday's improved trend of Wall Street. Buyers came in for some industrials and gains of a few pence were widespread. A lack of follow-through however called a halt to the upswing and slight recessions resulted.

British government stocks were slightly irregular.

Oil shares were unchanged or lower.

Bear covering assisted copper shares. Other mining issues were quiet with scattered firmness shown by Kaffirs Free States.

ICC APPROVES CODE

Fair Treatment Asked For Foreign Capital

By Canadian Press

Believe it or not there is a lot of money in the world looking for a place to go.

A resolution was passed yesterday at the International Chamber of Commerce in Quebec designed to provide that if it goes somewhere it will have some guaranty of coming back.

It was a resolution of the group discussing fair treatment for foreign investments and foreign enterprises, and like other group resolutions, goes to Friday's final plenary session for approval.

The resolution approved a code for such fair treatment and commented. "If there is to be revival of private international investment on a scale sufficient to meet present-day needs, there must first be created a climate of confidence. The private investor is free to invest or not as he pleases.

"If the conditions surrounding the investment are unattractive, he will simply refrain from putting up his money . . .

"Inter-governmental lending, valuable as it has been and still is in the emergency period following the war, cannot be more than a temporary expedient—it must be supplemented and progressively replaced by substantial movements of private capital."

Peter Vieli, of Switzerland, chairman of the group meeting, expanded on the matter to a press conference, and pictured a world with large areas requiring development, with a great deal of private money available to do it, but with lack of confidence keeping the two from getting together.

Countries like Switzerland and the United States have too much capital, he stated.

If, however, their investors put their money in other countries they need some guarantee that they can get it back when they need it; that it won't face the risk of being wiped out by nationalization; and that it will come back in the currency in which it went in—not in some depreciated currency.

"Unless foreign investment can have confidence, the economic recovery of the world is impossible."

Acceptance by governments of the ICC code would, he said, save the world.

GOLD is always in Demand

The present deflationary trend should result in higher profits for many producing gold companies, enabling greater dividend distributions.

Over the longer term the prospect of an increase in the price of gold lends attraction to Gold shares for capital appreciation.

Upset Emotions Said Big Factor in Health

SASKATOON, June 16.—(CP)—All people don't have "million dollar" personalities. Some in fact have personalities which throw the normal functions of their bodies out of kilter.

Doctors attending the Canadian Medical Association convention today were advised that failure "to take into account the psychological elements . . . in most diseases will seriously affect the result of treatment."

Dr. D. E. H. Cleveland of Vancouver cited dermatosis, or skin disease, as an example.

The mental life of a patient, is rarely the sole cause of his skin disease "but its fundamental importance must not be overlooked."

Dr. H. K. Detweiler of Toronto said the psychic factor is particularly important in dealing with patients suffering from asthma.

"Emotional conflicts, by upsetting the patients' mental calm, are a great factor in precipitating allergies already there," he said.

In treating asthmatics there has been a tendency to focus attention on bacterial infections of the respiratory tract and allergies like hay fever.

These play an important role in the immediate cause of asthma attacks but the mental factor, which may have preceded the immediate cause, should not be neglected.

Dr. Detweiler stressed the importance of a careful history of asthma sufferers with the fullest attention to the nature and origin of nervous factors which complicate the basic allergies.

Both doctors said the first step in dealing with a disease liable to be affected by the patient's mind is acceptance by the medical practitioners of the fact the disease can have multiple causes, and while one cause may not be evident it can react on another to bring about the unhealthy condition.

GOAT GETS HER GOAT SO SHE GETS HIM

BRAZIL, Ind., June 16.—(UP)—A neighbor's goat has butted Mrs. Laura Ferguson, 84, for the last time. When the goat threatened her as she worked in her garden, she turned her spading fork in his direction. The goat was the aggressor though and Mrs. Ferguson retreated to her house.

The goat came up on the porch and danced menacingly around the door. Mrs. Ferguson shot the goat through the head with a 22-caliber rifle. He staggered off the porch and fell dead.

Modest Price Slashes Might Tip Sales Boom

WASHINGTON, June 16.—(AP)—Modest price cuts might be all that's needed to start sales booming again in the United States.

That was the surprisingly-simple implication of a federal reserve board survey of consumer buying prospects for the January 3-March 5 period. Announced yesterday, it boils down to this:

Unless they've changed their minds in the last 2½ months, the U.S. people have both the money and the desire for record quantities of goods—but at somewhat lower prices.

Automobiles? There were not only more prospective buyers this year than last, but they expected to pay more for their new and used cars, the survey shows.

The finding: Out of 52,000,000 families, 3,600,000 intended to buy new cars and 1,900,000 wanted used cars at costs averaging $2,000 and $710 respectively—an overall average of $1,600.

Houses? More prospective buyers here, too, than a year ago—some two to three million of them—and they were resigned to higher costs: an average of $8,200 against the 1948 prospects' $7,400.

More than 1,000,000 of the 1949 prospects wanted new houses—which is more new houses than will be completed this year. The demand was heaviest for "moderate priced houses of acceptable quality."

Television sets? Probably twice as many prospects as last year—maybe around 1,450,000 or so in all.

For other durable goods—furniture, household appliances and the like—buying intentions were "slightly weaker early in 1949 than early in 1948," but the "indicated decline in demand was small."

Big question remaining, of course, is whether buyers have undergone a sweeping change of attitude since their marked optimism of early March.

The reserve board said there can be no sure answer to that now, but it commented:

NICE PEOPLE, THESE TENANTS

FORT WORTH, Tex. June 13.—(UP)—A landlord who rented his home to a couple for two months returned home to find: the water on; the air conditioner on; 11 unpaid long distance calls; unpaid utility bills; rent for second month unpaid; attic trunk ransacked; one closet ransacked. He didn't find: a typewriter; the couple.

The rotating earth speeds up occasionally, then slows down a little. Nobody knows why. To the long run, it is slowing down. The slowing down averages out to about 1/1,000 of a second in 100 years, says the National Geographic Society.
